The Charleston Arsenal Occupied by the State Troops.

MILITARY PREPARATIONS. CHARLESTON, Dec. 30 .- The South Carolina troops took possession of the arsenal in this city to-day, containing many thousand stand of arms and military stores.

The military preparations are actively and zealously progressing.
Volunteers have tendered there and from several of the Southern States, and among them are officers of the army and navy, and West Point graduates.
Captain S. M. Morgan, of Tennessee, ha

A Letter from Major Anderson. We have been furnished, by a gentleman of Baltimore, says the Baltimore Exchange, with the following letter, from the commander of the United States forces at Charteston. As Alter Chas E Levi S 2 anything from that quarter is of interest, we lay it before our readers:

FORT MOULTRIE, S. C., Dec. 25, 1860. DEAR StR: I thank you for the trouble you Belshover Jucob were kind enough to take in correcting so of the rumors about me. You are right in the opinion that I could not, and would not, say anything contradictory of them. My plan always has been to try to do my duty honestly ways has been to try to do my day, not sense and fully, and to trust that in the good sense of justice of the people they would give me credit for good intentions, even if my judgment should turn out not to have been good. I must confess that I regret that the papers are making so much of my position here. I do not deserve the least credit for what I am doing: nothing more than any one else would do in my position, and perhaps not done half so well as many others would do. I receive, nearly by every mail, letters of sympathy, and many of them from strangers.

I hope that it will not be long before some thing will occur to give me a chance of being Conrath Joremial relieved from my present position. Thanking you for your kind remembrance Carrel Josep Davidson J W Cant 3

Thanking you is, of me, I am, truly yours,
ROBERT ANDERSON. To ---, Esq., Baltimore.

Phor. O. J. Woon: Dear Sir:—In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my lair. from a cause unknown to me, commenced to six months, the whole upper part of my scaip was entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the rentaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more basual acquaintanees were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintanees were to recognize me at all.

I at once made application to the most skilful physicians in the country, but, receiving no assurance from them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunately, in the latter part of the year 1857, your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my groat satisfaction that it was producing the desired worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of soft black hair which no money can buy.
