Another time, be more candid with your friend, and don't put on any more airs with poor people. On the fifteenth of the next month is the wedding." You remember one of Shakspeare's most cel ebrated apothegms, "All is not gold that glit-ters;" might it not be well to add—and the purest gold often does not shine at all? FEROCITY OF THE AFRICAN GORILLAS .- Dr. Du Chaillu is probably the first and only white man who has ever dared to wage war with the gorillas. The apes of Borneo and Sumatra are bucket, and one had just charged his mouth infants in comparison with them. The far with the contents of the cup, while the old gentleman was stooping over to recover his pen from the floor, when another, passing along behind, snapped his fingers quick un-der the drinker's car which caused him on a famed chimpanzee is a great docile creature, which can never be named in the same day with the gigantic savage of Central Africa. Think of it! the gorilla is six feet two inches in height, and three feet between the shoulder blades. The paw is that of the giant, three with his face and hair dripping, he should aloud ;—"Who did that?" The party unanitimes the size of the human hand. "Ilow shall I know?" As they approach their adversary they en-deavor to intimidate him. One would think this was easily done. That fearful sound, those frantic eyes, glaring with the intelligence and malignity of a demon, were enough to shake nerves not so easily disturbed from their oquipose. Our hero lost five or six men in these engagements. Think of the tremendous strength that with one blow of the arm could crush the ribs like pipe stems, and tear out a piece of the side; and that with a single movement of the jaw could crush the barrel of a gun as if it had been a stick of candy !
