WORTHY OF ANY CONFIDENCE FOR RE-BALD AND GRAY. ANY, since the discovery of Prof. Wood, have attempted not only to inhitate his restorative, but profess to have discovered something that would produce results identical; but they have all come and gone, being carried away by the wonderful results of Prof. Wood's preparations, and have been forced to leave the field to its resistless sway. Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.: Gents.:—The letter I wrote you in 1856 concerning your valuable Hair Restorative, and which you have published in this vicinity and elsowhere, has given rise to numerous enquiries are, first, is it a fact of my habitation and name, as stated in the communication; second, is it true of all therein contained; third, does my list still continue to be in good order and of natural color? To all I can and do answer invariably yes.—My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for 40 years past, more soft, thrifty, and better colored; the same is true of my whiskers, and the only cause why it is not generally true, is that the substance is washed off by frequent ablution of the face, when if cared were used by wiping the face in close connection with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters from all parts of New England, asking ine if my hair still continueat by by good in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as this, it has, no Proclamation.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir.-I would certainly PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir.—I would certainly be doing you a great injustice not to make known to the world, the wonderful, as well as the unexpected result I have experienced from using one bottle of your Hair Restarative. After using every kind of Restoratives extant, but without success, and finding Restoratives extant, but without success, and finding my hand norify destitute of hair. I was finally induced to try a bottle of your Hair Restorative.—Now, candor and justice compel me to announce to whoever may read this; that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, which I pronounce to ticker and handsomer than the original was. I will therefore take occasion to recommend this valuable romedy to all who may feel the necessity of it.
