A String of Pearls.

For the benefit of the Republican Literation we have collected and now publish a few of the choiest literary morceaus that fell from the eloquent lips of Honest Old Abe. In order to appreciate these pearl drops one must have a very refined and classic taste, or be an applicant for some office in the gift of the building was shattered by the explosion, President elect! Let an admiring world read which was as loud as a discharge of ordiand wonder at the genius that emitted these sparkling coruscations: When I get to Indianapolis I expect to make you a longer speech, but not much longer. Lincoln at Lebenon, Indiana. I take your response as the most reliable evidence that it may be so, along with other evidence, trusting that the good sense of the has never deserted us, that we shall again be brothren, forgetting all parties-ignoring all parties.—Lintoln at Cincinnatti.

Whatever is calculated to advance the condition of the honest, struggling laboring man, so far as my judgement will enable me to judge of a correct thing, I am for that

Will some of our Republican friends parse the two last paragraphs?

Fellow-Citizens, what I have said I hav said altogether extemporaneously, and I will now come to a close.—Lincoln at Columbus,

He intended to say a few words to the peo ple of Pittsburg, the greatest manufacturing city of the United States, upon such matters as he believed they desired to hear; but as he had adopted the plan of holding his tongue for the most part, since his election, he had, perhaps, better now hold his tongue.—Lincoln t Pitisburgh. In plain words there is no real crisis, except an artificial one.-Ditto.

The tariff is to the government what meal is to the family. * * * I must confess that I do not understand the subject in all its various bearings; but I do promise you that I will give it my closest attention, and endeavor to comprehend it more fally .- Ditto. If a bar of iron got out of the mines of England, and a bar of iron taken from the mines of Pennsylvania, be produced at the same cost, it follows that if the English bar be shipped from Manchester to Pittsburg, and the American bar from Pittsburg Manchester, the cost of carriage is approciably lost. [Laughter.]-Ditto.

Very evincing truly! No wonder the people "laughed."

I have appeared here simply to thank you heartily for this noble reception—to see you and allow you to see me. Lan not sure, but at least as regards the ladies, I have the best of the bargain in the sight. - Lincoln at Syrause, New York.

Well, those ladies must have felt highly flattered! Old Abe thought, perhaps they were better looking than he is, but was "not surces of that! What a compilment!

It presume that in the course through which I shall have to go, I shall have to repeat somewhat, and I will only repeat to you my thanks for this kind reception .- Linco The reception you have given me this day, given to me personly it should not he so, bu as the representative for the time being of the majority of the nation .- Ditto. I do not say that in the recent election the people did the worst thing that could have been done"—Lincoln at Psughteepsie. In this last comark the people of the country fully agree with Mr. Lincoln.

These "orient pearls at random" that from the lips of Old Abe, says the Indianapolis State Sentinel, stamp him no less as a statesthan as a scholar of classic cloquence and aprough acquaintance with English langnage! How chastely and boautiful he expresses his thoughts! With what grace and elegance he plays the orator! And this is the man elevated by the American people to the place once filled by Washington, Jefferson, damses, Madison! Alas! liow are mighty fallen!

THE CHESTS AND THE HOTELS .- The famous "Girard House," in Philadelphia, as an-mounced a few days ago, has been compelled to close: cause, the punic, and the effects of rivalry in the business. In New York, some of the public houses have suffered severely in their receipts; others have had as much busireceipts; others have had as noted business as they could well attend to. The Metropolitan and St. Nicholas miss a large portion of their Southern qustomers. In January and early in the present month, there was a large decrease of patronage compared with last year; but now, there are signs of returning favor from the South and South-west; and the falling off from those quarters is partially made up by an increase from the West and Northwest, where trade was uncommonly depressed last year at this time. The Fifth Avenue House has had 200 steady high priced boarders through the winter, and an avcrage of 200 transient. Last week, in consequence of the military display and other temporary attractions in the city, this House and the Metropolitan were both taxed for accommodations to their full capacity, which was a welcome change. The Brevoort House has been full, but it accommodates only a few inore than 100. The Albemarle, opposite Madjison square, has fared very swell, and the Everett House has also been well gestained, in large part from steady boarders. The large down town houses, including the Astor, have not averaged know than half the extent of their accommodations. Thus it appears that politics don't help hotels—the recognized Republican hand quarters suffering in common with Union establishments.—New York Journal of Commerce.

HOUSEKEEPERS—troubled with yermin, need be so no longer, if they use "Costar's" Exterminators. We have used it to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5, we would have it. We had tried poisons, but they effected nothing; but Costar's article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice and Bed-Bucs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—Medina (O.,) Gazette. MORE GRAIN and provisions are destroyed an-nually in Grant Country by vermin, than would pay for tons of this Rat and Insect Killer.

HENRY R. COSTAR.—Your Exterminator is received, used, and pronounced a decided success.—We used a box of it, and the way the Kats and Mice around our premises "raised Ned" that night was a caution to sleepers. Since then not a Rat or Mouse has been heard in kitchen or cellar."

The Only Discovery

WORTHY OF ANY CONFIDENCE FOR RESTORING THE BALD AND GRAY. MANY, since the discovery of Prof. Wood, have attempted not only to imitate his restorative, but profess to have discovered something that would produce results identical; but they have all some and since hear would array by the results. come and gone, being carried away by the wonder-ful results of Prof. Wood's preparations, and have been forced to leave the field to its resistless sway.

Read the following:

Bath, Maine, April 18th, 1859. Bath, Maine, April 15th, 1859.
PROF. O. J. Wood & Co.: Gents. — The letter I wrote, you in 1856 concerning your valuable Hair Restorative, and which you have published in this vicinity and elsewhere, has given rise to numerous enquiries touching the facts in the case. The enquiries are, first, is it a fact of my habitation and name, as stated in the communication record in the name, as stated in the communication; second, is it true of all therein contained; third, does my hair still continue to be in good order and of natural col-or? To all I can and do answer invariably yes. or? To all I can and do answer invariably yes.—My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for 40 years past, more soft, thrifty, and better colored; the same is true of my whiskers, and the only cause why it is not generally true, is that the substance is washed off by frequent ablution of the face, when if cared were used by wiping the face in close connection with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters from all parts of New England, asking me if my hair still continues to be good; as there is so much fraud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as this, it has, no as there is so much fraud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as this, it has, no doubt been basely imitated and been used, not only without any good effect, but to absolute injury. I have not used any of your Restorative of any account for some menths, and yet my hair is as good as ever, and hundreds have examined it with surprise, as I am now 61 years old and not a gray hair in my head or on my face; and to prove this fact, I soud you a lock of my hair taken off the past week. I received your favor of two quart bottles last summer, for which I am very grateful! I gave it to my friends and thereby induced them to try it, many were skeptical until after trial, and then purchased and used it with universal success. I will ask as a favor, that tical until after trial, and then purchased and used it with universal success. I will ask as a favor, that you sond me a test by which I can discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many, I fear, without arthority from you. A pure article will insure a coss, and I believe where good effects do not full when the failure is caused by the impure article which the failure is caused by the impure article which causes the inventor of the good. I deem it may be a curses the inventor of the good. I deem it may be a shoretofore, to keep you apprised of the continued as heretofore, to keep you apprised of the continued as heretofore, to keep you apprised of the continued effect on my hair, as I assure all who enquire of any of my unshaken tpinion of its reluable results. I remain, dear sir, yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

Aarons, Run Ky., Nov. 30, 1836.

Proof. G. J. Wood: Dear Sir.—I would certainly be doing you a greatinjustice not to make known to the world, the wonderful, as well as the unexpected result I have experienced from using over birtie of your Hair Restaratize. After using every kind of Restoratives extant, but without success, and finding my head nearly destine of hair, I was finally induced to try a bottle of your Hair Restorative.—Now, candor and fustice compel me to announce to wheever may read this, that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, which I pronounce richer and handsomer than the original was. I will therefore take occasion to pecommend this valuable remedy to all who may feel the necessity of it.

Respectfully yours, REV. S. ALLEN BROCK.
P. S.—This testimonial of my approbation for your valuable medicine (as you are aware of) is unsolicited:—but if you think it worthy a place among the rest, insert if you wish; if not destroy and say nothing.

Yours, &c., Rev. S. A. B.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, institum, and small; the small holds \(\frac{1}{2} \) a pint, and rehalls for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion, and retails for three dollars a bottle.

January 17, 1861-3m Cream of Tartar "Substitute." Cream of Tarias "Substitute."

THIS article is recommended as the best in use, in combination with soda or saloratus, for making bread, biscuit, cakes, &c. This substitute produces bread and cakes, which, when cold, are sweet, moist, and grateful, while those of Cream Tartar are dry and tasteless.

It will cost less than Cream of Tartar, and in cooking is used in the same way.

This new article, as also Saloratus, Soda, and Puro Cream Tartar, Arrow Root, Mustard Sodd, Spices, ground and unground—unadulterated. For sale at the store of J. W. EBY, Carlislo, Dec. 13, 1860.
