THE WAR NEWS. ARMY AT CHAMBERSBURG.

ADVANCE OF THE FIRST BRIGADE

TO MARYLAND. The Column Six Miles Long.—Animated and Imposing Scene.—Soldiers in High Spirits. —Enthusiasm of the People.—The Troops Expected to Reach Hagerstown To-Morrow Evening.

CHAMBERSBURG, June 7.

The southward march of the army collected at this point commenced this morning at eight o'clock, in splendid order and brilliant appearance. As the head of the column left the tamp, the scene was animated and imposing —the citizens cheering, and the soldiers re-sponding, while the feeling of both comman-ders and troops was full of hope, courage and animation.

The column extended along a line of six miles. The troops sprend along this column consisted of a portion of the Second Regiment of United States Cavalry ; the First City Troop of Dhiladelphia; Capt. Doubleday's command from Fort Sumpter; Capt. McMullin's Ran-gers from Philadelphia, and the Sixth, Twon-ty-first and Twonty-third Regiments of Pennsylvania Voluntcers, commanded respectively by Col. Nagle, Col. Ballier, and Col. Dara.— The line moved precisely at eight o'clock this morning. It is expected that the troops will encamp at Greenseastle to-night, a distance of 11 miles from Chambersburg, and within a few miles from the Mrryland line. The march to-morrow will be to Hagerstown. The movement of the remaining force her is not known positively, but it is understood all will be ordered hence to the South in a few days.

Later from Williamsport.

Approaching the town, the enemy's picket was surprised and capby the turnpike road from Grafton, avoiding the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and 15,000 men under General Butler, aided tured. Several documents were found upon them, which I enclose. On entering the town of Fuirfax my command was fired upon by by a naval force, will make their way up the the James river. A strong force will be colthe Rebel troops from windows and housetops. I charged and drove the mounted rifles from lected in Western Virginia in addition to Col onel Sherman's corps d' armee for the proteche town. Immediately two or three additiontion of the Unionists there. al companies camso to their relief and fired upon us, which I returned. Perceiving I was outnumbered, I deemed it advisable to retreat which I did in good order with five prisoners A Secessionist Shot. Clinton Reutch, a wealthy secessionist, was hot last night by a Union man at Williams fully armed and equipped, and two horses. My loss is three men missing, three slightly wounded, and six horses lost. The loss of the ort. Reutch boasted that he could whip any Union man living. After his death a pass was found upon him, signed by his brother, a prominent secessionist of Maryland, accreditjudge that the Rebels at that point numbered fully 1500 mon.
