Great Battle at Boonville. Mo:cessionists Routed, and 300

Sr. Louis, Mo., June 18. A special dispatch from Jefferson City says that Gen. Lyon's expedition left there yester day in two steamers, destined for Boonville. Gen. Lyon landed four miles below Boonville, and opened a heavy cannonade against the rebels, who retreated and dispersed into the adjacent wood, whence, hidden by brushes and trees, they opened a brisk fire on our troops. General Lyon then ordered a hasty retreat to the boats; and the rebels, encou aged by this movement, rallied and followed the troops into the wheat field. General Lvor halted, faced his troops about, and bringing the whole force of his artillery to bear, opened a murderous fire on the rebels, 300 of whom were killed, and the balance fled in all direc tions, leaving their arms on the field. General Lyon then moved forward and took possession of Boonville. General Price was taken ried to his home in Charaton. Governor Jackson viewed the battle from a distant hill, and fled for parts unknown after the defeat of his

Colonel Magruder and others spoke in the highest terms of Major Winthrop's bravery. # The Defence of Richmond.

Washington, Thursday, June 20. We learn from Richmond, that troops from the States further South continued to arrive in that city. It appears fourteen regiments have arrived there recently, making 35,000 in all at that point, all well armed, some of them with European muskets, and well com-manded, either by West Point graduates or men who have been students in the Southern military academies. We are also informed that in addition to the new intrenchments eight miles northwest of Richmond, the city is to be defended from attack on the western side by works at a still greater distance, in pursuance of surveys just made by military engi-

MOVEMENTS OF THE REBEL GENERAL

The movements of General Johnson since the movements of General Johnson since he evacuated Harper's Ferry have been shrouded in mystery. He is evidently out of the reach of the telegraph. From the best information we possess, part of his force proceeded westward, part to Manassas Junction, and nart still remains in the vicinity of Harner's westward, part to Manassas Junchon, and part still remains in the vicinity of Harper's Ferry. He has fortified Shirley's Hill, at Charlestown, five miles south of the Ferry, and placed in battery twenty heavy guns from the Maryland Heights. It is the point of intersection of the roads from Romney, Winchester Martinshurg and Shephardstown Vinchester, Martinsburg, and Shepherdstown. and the object may be to secure his communications with the main army while he is making offensive operations westward.

THE CAPTURED PRIVATEER SAVANNAH. The government has under consideration a very important question, arising out of the capture of the privateer Savannah, as to what ought to be done with the crew. While it is perfectly clear that these men are guilty, and it the law is allowed to take its course-and it is hoped it will—they must be hung. The President has not yet decided what course to pursue, for the present, at least.

Treason to Speak of Frauds!

The Germantown Telegraph, a journal of the Republican stripe, is attempting the herculcan task of lifting the Curtin Administration from the slough into which it has fallen, in consequence of the frauds and peculations perpetrated on our brave soldiers. session of Boonville. General Price was taken with violent diarrhoea at the beginning of the forward to convict Governor Curtin and his satellites, of wholesale plunder of the troops entrusted to their care and keeping, he essays a novel mode of getting rid of the difficulty, by stigmatizing all who expose their doings as being guilty of "sneaking treason." HENRY R. COSTAR .-- All the summer I have been troubled with Roaches and Mico. I was actually ashamed of the house, for the Roaches were evenny annance of the house, for the Konenes were ever rywhere: I purchased a box of your Exterminator and tried it, and in one week there was not a Rouch of Mouse in the house.

JOHN B. GIVENS, No. 94, Elm Street. HOUSEKEEPERS—troubled with vermin, need be so no longer, if they use "Costan's" Exterminators. We have used it to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5; we would have it. We had tried poisons; but they effected nothing; but Costan's article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice and Bed-

Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—Medina (O.,) Gazette. MORE GRAIN and provisions are destroyed an-nually in Grant County by vermin, than would pay for tons of this Rat and Insect Killer. Lancaster, (Wis.,) Herald. HENLY R. COSTAR—Your Exterminator is received, usee, and pronounced a decided success.—
We used a box of it, and the way the Rats and Mice around our premises "raised Ned" that night was a caution to sleepers. Since then not a Rator Mouse has been heard in kitchen or cellar.
