CONTRIBUTION BOX IN CALIFORNIA.—Those 1862. who go around with the contribution boxes in California churches, plead and argue the case at the pews as they go along. I one instance the following dialogue occured:

Parson L. extended the box to Bill, and he slowly shook his head. 'Come William, give something to the church,' said the par-

'Can't do it,' replied Bill.
'Why not? Is not the cause a good one? 'Yes, but I am not able to give anything.'

'Poh! I khow. better; you must give a better reason than that.' Well I owe too much money—I must be just before I'm generous you know.'

'But William you owe God a larger flebt than you owe anybody else.'

'That's true, parson; but then he aint' pushing me like the balance of my creditors.'

NEVER ASK QUESTIONS IN A HURRY .- ' Tom,

a word with you.'
'Be quick then; I'm in a hurry.' 'What did you give your sick horse tother

'A pint of turpentine.' John hurries home and administers the same dose to a favorite charger, who, strange to say, dropped of defunct in half an hour. His opinion of his friend's veterinary ability is somewhat staggered. He meets him the next day.

'Well, Tom!' 'Well, John, what is it?' 'I gave my horse a pint of turpentine, and it killed him as dead as Julius Cæsar.' ' So did it mine.'

"IN DEATH THEY WERE NOT DIVIDED."-On Sunday the 18th inst., Mrs. Marcy Mott, aged 80 years and 8 months, died; and on Monday: the 19th. Mr. Stephen Mott, her hus band, aged 86 years and 8 months, followed her to the spirit land. They resided in Seitu-ate, Mass., and had lived together as hus-band and wife for sixty-three years. Mr. Mott had been able to superintend the worl upon his farm. A day or two before his wife's death he was told that she would not probably recover, and on leaving the room he said, Marcy is going and I guess I shall go too. He survived her but a few hours, and they were both buried in one grave on Wednes-

Col. Skinner of the 'Texas,' who was going it on a 'high figure' before the right kind of audiences, thus settled a long disputed fact in history, and elevated himself: 'Feller citizens,' said he, with a knowing look, 'I was at the battle where Tecumsy was killed—I was. I commanded a regiment there—I did. I'm not gwine to say who did kill Tecumsy—I won't. But ihis much I will say: Tecumsy was killed by one of my pistols; and, gentlemen, I leave it to your knowledge of human nature if a man would be vary and to lead out his mixed on an action. be very apt to lend out his pistol on an occasion of that sort.'

THE BATTLE FIELD. A Williamsburg correspondent writes: I took a walk over the late battle field. All the dead had been buried and the trees bore evidence of the terrible fire that was poured into the ferest to drive the rebels from their cover. Limbs were cut off the trees almost as smoothly as with the axe, while muskets, rifles, cannon balls, and fragments of shell strewed the ground in every direction. In one instance I saw a 24 pounder shell which had burried itself in a small tree, and then failed to explode.

GEN. TAYLOR'S DAUGHTER .- A late letter from Winchester, Va., states that among the rankest of the rank Secession ladies there is Mrs. Dandrige, better known as "Betty Bliss" the daughter of the late President Zuchary, Taylor. The lady recently paid a visit to the prison there to pay her respects to some of its Rebel inmates, and during her stay, had the bad taste to express the benovolent wish that our troops might be destroyed by the yellow fever, if not by powder and lead. Alas, for Betty Bliss!

Jonn Drew, the celebrated comedian, died in Philadelphia, on Wednesday after-noon, of congestion of the brain. He was a native of Ireland, and came to this country before he had attained manhood. He married about fourteen years ago, alls. Horr, a talented actress, and leaves three children. He had just completed a highly successful engagement of one hundred nights at the Archried about fourteen years ago, Mrs. Hunt, al street Theatre, and was about starting on second tour to Europe. YELLOW COLOR IN FLOWERS.—This is the predominant color in flowers, and is the most permanent. The yellow of the petels is the only color which is not discharged by the fumes of sulphurous acid. If, for example, a lighted match is held under them, the purple or any other color will disappear, but the yellow will remain unchanged. Yellow is also a color which, more than any other, baffles the skill of the photagraphist.

"I have brought you this bill until I am fairly sick and tired of it," said a collector to a creditor, upon whom he had called at least forty times. "You are, ch?" cooly rejoined the creditor. 'Yes, I am," was the response. "Well then you had better not present it ricty; again. There will be two of us pleased if you dodo not; for, to tell the truth. I'm sick and tired of seeing that indentical bill myself." A Spaniard sent his son to the University of Salamanca, and told him to study economy, and to eat beef rather than poultry. On arriving, the young gentleman asked the price of cows. 'About twenty dollars.' 'And partridges?'

'Twenty-five cents.' All kinds Domestic Ginghams 121; Manchester 187; 30 pieces of French and Scotch Dress and Bonnet Ginghams at 25.

'I must live on partridges,' said he, 'they are decidedly the changest of the two.'

The papers say that Gen. McClellan, though struck by a piece of a shell at Williamsburg, escaped uninjured. We are not surprised at it. An officer, who could stand as many attacks from politicians as he has done, must be bomb-proof. The Emancipationists all speak of the SPRING MANTLES, DUSTERS, SHAWLS, Abolition of slavery as if it were to be a punishment of the South. We firmly believe that in the end it would prove to be a greater "punishment" to the North.
