THE CONFISCATION BILL.

The confiscation bill, as amended and passed by the House of Representatives is as follows:

A bill to confiscate the property of rebels for the payment of the expenses of the present rebellion, and for other purposes. Be it enacted by the Senato and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled. That all the estate and property, moneys, stocks, credits and effects of the persons hereafter named in this section, are hereby forfeited to the government of the United States, and are declared lawful subjects of seizure and of prize and capture wherever found, for the indomnity of the United States against the expenses of suppressing the present rebellion—that is to 1st—or any person hereafter acting as of ficer of the army or navy of the rebels in arms against the Government of the United States. 2d-Of any person hereafter acting as president, vice president, member of congress, judge of any court, cabinet officer, foreign minister, commissioner or consul of the so-called confederate states of America.

3d-Of any person acting as governor of a state, member of a convention or legislature, or judge of any court of the so called confederate states of America; provided that such persons shall have accepted their appointments since the date of the pretended ordinance of secession, or taken the oath of allegiance to the so-called confederate states. 4th-Of any person who having held an office of honor, trust or profit in the United States, shall hereafter hold an office in the so called confederate states. 5th—Of any person hereafter holding any office or agency under the government of the so called confederate states of America, or under any of the several states of the said confederacy, or the laws thereof, whether such office or agency be national, state or municipal in its name or character.

6th—Of any persons who, owning proper-ty in any loyal State or Territory of the Uni-ted States, or in the District of Columbia, shall hereafter assist and give aid and comfort to such rebellion; and the said estate and property, and moneys, stocks, credits, and effects of the persons aforesaid, and hereby declared lawful subjects of seizure and of prize and capture wherever found; and the President of the United States shall cause the same to be seized, to the end that they may be confiscated and condemned, as hereinafter provided, to the use of the United States; and all sales, transfers or conveyances of any such property shall be null and void: and it shall be a sufficient bar to any suit brought by such person for the possession or use of such property or any of it, to allege and prove that he is one of the persons described in this Bection.
Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That if any person within any State or territory of the United States, other than those named as aforesaid, after the passage of this act, being engaged in armed rebellion against the Government of the United States, or aiding or abetting such rebellion, shall not, within sixty days after public warning and proclama-tion duly given and made by the president of the United States, cease to aid, countenance and abet such rebellion, and return to his allegiance to the United States, all the estate and property, moneys, stocks and credits of such persons are hereby forfeited thereafter-ward to the Government of the United States and the same are declared lawful subjects of seizure and of prize and capture wherever found; and the President of the United States shall cause the same to be seized to the end that they may be confiscated and condemned as hereinaster provided to the use of the United States; and all sales, transfers, or conveyances of any such property, after the expiration of the said sixty days from the date of such warning and proclamation, shall be null and void; and it shall be sufficient bar to any suit brought by such person for the possession or the use of such property, or any of it, to allege and prove that he is one of the persons described in this section. SEC. 3. And be it further enacted. That to secure possession, condemnation and sale of any such property, situate in any State, district or territory of the United States, proceedings in rem shall be in the name of the March 27, 1862.

Annual Annual Colors of every description, dry and in oil, in the March 27, 1862.

H. SAXT ceedings in rem shall be in the name of the United States in any district court of the United States, or in any territorial court, or in the United States district court for the District of Columbia, within which the property above described, or any part theroof may be found, or into which the same, if movable, may be first brought, which proceedings shall conform as nearly as may be to proceedings in prize cases, or to cases of forfeiture arising under the revenue laws; and the said property so seized and condemned, whether real or personal, shall be sold under the decree of the court having cognizance of the case, and the proceeds deposited in the Treasury of the United States for their use and benefit.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the several courts aforesaid shall have power to make such orders, establish such forms of decree and sale, and direct such deeds and conveyances to be executed and delivered by the marshal thereof, whose real estate shall be the subject of sale, as shall fitly and efficiently effect the purpose of this act, and vest in the purchasers of such property good and valid titles thereto; and the said court shall have power to allow such fees and charges of their officers as shall be reasonable and proper in the premies.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the property seized as aforesaid, shall be used occupied, rented, or held under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasry, until judicial proceedings shall be had as herein provided, when proceenings in rem shall be instituted and prosecuted to judgment and sale in the mode aforesaid, and the proceeds applied as aforesaid; Provided that perishable articles seized under this bill shall be used or sold, pursuant to such rules as may be presented by the Secretary of the Treasury, and the proceeds applied as above provided. SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the several district courts of the United States shall have power to do everything necessary or proper to carry this act into full effect. — And the Attorney General or any district attorney of the United States, or of any district in which the said property may at the time be, or into which the same may be taken, be, or into which the same may be taken, shall institute the proceedings aforesaid.

Sec. 7, And be it further enacted, That in all cases arising under this act where the profile cases are act where the count shall be kept thereof, and any loyal creditor of the former owner of such property may, within ninety days; and not thereafter, except as herein provided, exhibit his claims to the Secretary of the Treasury, who, upon proof of the loyalty of the claimant and the justice of the claim, shall have power to al-allow and pay the same out of such proceeds. Provided, That if the several claims exhibiten and ascertained shall exceed the amount so deposited in the treasury they shall be ra-tably paid; And provided, further, That in no event shall any larger sums be paid from the treasury than have been deposited there the treasury than have been deposited there on account of the said property; And provided, also, That no claim shall be received or examined which has not been exhibited within the said ninety days, unless the claimant shall show and prove good and sufficient cause, without fault on his part, for neglect as delay, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the
