The Papers of the Paper

Our men are behaving splendidly. The enemy are fighting well also. This is not a onemy are against with a solution and a lattic; merely an affair of Heintzelman's corps, supported by Keyes, and thus far all moss well, and we hold every foot we have gained. If we succeed in what we have undertaken, it will be a very important advantage gained. Loss not large thus far. The fighting up to this time has been done by Gen. Hookers' Division, which has behaved right, Porter has silenced the enemy's battories in his front.

GEO. B. McCLELLAN, Major-General Commanding.

REDOUBT No. 3, June 25-5 P. M. To Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War : The affair is over, and we have gained our point with but little loss, notwithstanding the strong opposition. Our meu have done all that could be desired. The affair was partially decided by two guns that Capt. Decrusy [Dusenbury?] brought gallantly into action under very difficult circumstances. The this, and all is now quiet.

M'CLELLAN'S NEW BASE OF OPERA-TIONS ON JAMES RIVER !

GREAT BATTLE NEAR RICHMOND, New York, June 30.
The New York Tribune has just issued an extra with dispatches, dated on the battle field Sunday morning. The dispatches state that a severe and most determined battle was fought on the right wing on Thursday and Friday, which is claimed by some of our offi-rebel army. The attack was made by the enomy in immense force, who crossed the Chick-shomity near the railroad above Mechanics rille, on Thursday afternoon. The rebels fought desperately, but were unable to drive our men a single rod, though the enemy were ten to our one. The only force engaged that day was M'Call's division, the battle lasting from 2 o'clock to 9 p.m., when the division was ordered back. Gen. M'Clellan was on the field and expressed himself satisfied with the field and expressed himself satisfied with

The Herald also publishes a report; dated the 27th, which states that our killed, wounded and missing will number 1,200. The object of the movement was to bring General Porter's and other divisions into close connection with the rest of the army—in fact changing the front of the whole of our forces, with our center and left pressing immediately on Richmond itself, which could be done and more effective distance salso to allow the rebels to fellow up, and if possible to bag.

Gen. McClellan ordered Gen. Portor to vithdraw to two miles this side of Gain's Mills early on Friday morning, which was orifling, when we consider the rapid and successive firing, and the time occupied in the land gained the victory, our troops slowly moving back in order, fighting as they went, be very heavy, from the fact that several of crossing the Chickahominy, and reached the position designed for their occupation by Gen. McClellan. The rebels followed in n doing good and efficient service:

Ouring the afternoon, Gen. Fitz John: Porgreat force, and by 3 o'clock in the afternoon, er marched to the relief of Gen. McCall, his a general and heavy engagement occurred here lasting till I o'clock, when a lull took place, but the robels again renewed it with greater ferocity, having been reinforced. Our brave men stood the unequal contest like heroes, and the shell, grape and musketry did fearful havee. Our forces were increased by Generals Slocum's, Palmer's, French's and Meagher's brigades, and the rebels were beat-ten badly. Meagher's brigade went into the battle with their coats off and sleeves rolled up, fighting like tigers.

The ground which General M'Clellan ordered General Porter to occupy and hold, was occupied and held." In the first part of the day General Porter's corps alone contended against the rebels, but subsequently reinforce ments swelled our numbers to 45,000. The rebels had 60,000, under Generals Lee, Hill,
