

ALEXANDRIA, August 30.—There has been heavy firing heard to-day in the direction of Centreville, and the contest of yesterday was undoubtedly renewed this morning. The communication has been re-established to Manassas, and the cars are running as far as Bull Run. The bridge and railroad are being repaired with the greatest dispatch, and trains will probably extend their trips to-morrow. There are still a large number of Alexandria awaiting transportation to the field of battle.

A Pennsylvania brigade, comprising the 123d, 135d and 134th and 130th regiments, under General Cook, were to march to-day. Those who were able to be removed from the Alexandria hospitals have been taken to Washington to make room for the wounded who are to arrive to-day.

Washington, Aug. 30.—General Pope's statement that Heintzelman's corps would move on the enemy at daylight is confirmed by the heavy firing heard from the vicinity. Reports of various successes have reached here, but need confirmation.

Yesterday rebel scouts were seen at Longlegs, in the vicinity of the Chain Bridge. Every precaution has been taken to prevent a surprise in that direction, the impression prevailing that the rebels have been entrapped, and the result of the recent maneuvering is looked for with intense eagerness.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Gen. Schenck arrived to-day, having been severely wounded in the night whilst in the battle of Centreville. There is an intense anxiety in hotels and streets to gather incidents of fights, but the reports are so indefinite up to noon to-day as not to justify their position.

Private advices from Fredericksburg, as late as 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, give contradiction to the current reports regarding the burning of bridges, &c., in that locality. There has been no such proceedings.

General Burnside had possession of that city certainly at 10 o'clock, yesterday. WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The rebels were heavily reinforced yesterday, and attacked Pope's army before the arrival of Generals Franklin and Sumner. The attack was repulsed, but the rebels followed.

WASHINGTON, August 31.—Information received here indicates that there has been but little if any fighting to-day. Our army is well concentrated, and the men are in good condition and spirits.

From the Seat of War. No Decisive Battle on Sunday. WASHINGTON, August 31.—Information received here indicates that there has been but little, if any, fighting to-day.

The War in Kentucky. A severe battle—Our Line of Battle Formed. Three Times—Retreat of Our Troops to Lexington—General Nelson Wounded.

CINCINNATI, August 31.—Our news from the West is important. Our troops under General Munson had a heavy brush with the enemy near Rogersville, Kentucky, on Friday and Saturday, which resulted in a loss on both sides. Our forces were compelled to fall back three miles and form a new line of battle on an elevated ground.

Good Draft Collars. I WILL neither brag nor banter, but if any man will bring me a horse with a neck or shoulder, and let me fit a collar on him, if his neck or shoulder does not get well by giving it a fair test, I will agree to charge him nothing for the collar. My collars are made of a superior material, and are perfectly adapted to the horse's neck. Bring your horse to my store, and I will give you a fair trial. SAMUEL ENSMINGER.
