A Clergyman's Joke.

It is seldom that the community of whitechokers indulge in joking after the manner of the vulgar world. But here is an exception:

In the month of December, 1858, the underthe vulgar world. But here is an exception:

In the month of December, 1858, the underthe vulgar world. I was spending the night in a hotel at Free-port, Illinois. After breakfast I came into the sitting room, where I met a pleasant, chatty, good-humored traveler, who, like my-who have tried them that it is now an established the sitting room, where I met a pieusant, chatty, good-humored traveler, who, like mysself, was waiting for the morning train from filena. We conversed pleasantly on several topics, until seeing two young ladies meet and kiss each other in the street, the convertance that a strick at the topics of the ladie of the hole of the ladie of the hole of the hole of the mind. The sation turned on kissing, just about the time the train was approaching. 'Come,' said he, taking his carpet bag,' 'since we are on so sweet a subject, let us have a practical application. The proposition staggered me a little, and I could hardly tell whicher he was in tle, and I could hardly tell whether he was in carnest or in fun; but as he would be as deep in it as I could possibly be, I agreed provided he would do the first kissing, though my theart failed me somewhat, as I saw his black eyes sparkle with daring. 'Yes,' said he, 'I'll try it first. You take the back car, and the front end. where you can see the stronger than other wines; warming and invigorating the whole system from the head to the feet. As these Bitters are tonic and alterative in their character. so they strengthen and invigorate the whole go in from the front end, where you can see they strengthen and invigorate the whole the faces of the ladies, and you stand by the one you think handsomest, and I'll come in from its parts, by equalizing the circulation, removing

Any further search was totally unnecessary. I immediately took my stand in the aisle of the car by her side. She was looking out of the window earnestly, as if expecting some one. The back door opened and in stepped my hotel friend. I pointed my finger slyly at her, never dreaming that he would dare to carry out his pledge; and you may imagine my amazement when he stepped up quickly behind her and stooping over, kissed Dr. Dods' Celebrated Wine Bitters her with a relish that made 'my mouth water' from end to end. I expected of course a ARE UNSURPASSED shrick of terror, and a row generally, and a knock down; but astonishment overcome me, they are truly valuable.

Before we reached Chicago, we exchanged cards, and I discovered that my genial companion was a popular Episconal preacher of Chicago, whose name I had frequenty heard. Whenever I go to Chicago I always go to the hear him, and a heartier, more natural and the more elequeut preacher is hard to find. He and Disease. was then but a young man; he is now well known as one of the ablest divines of the Episcopal denomination of the West.

A Woman Eludesthe Police Detectives for Two Years-Is Caught at last. The New York World of the 10th inst., has the following account of the arrest in that city, of a woman whom the police has been watching for a long time: Ellen Wagner, alias McNair, McNabb, Da-Ellen Wagner, alias McNair, McNabb, Davis, Buris, Smith, and a dozen other aliases, was arrested yesterday by Detective Fareley, of this city, and Detective Frost, of Brooklyn. This is one of the most important arrests that have been made in a number of years. The prisoner has been operating in this city and in other cities, including all the fashionable watering places, and several other States. Her method was to answer advertisements in the last twenty-five years. The proprietor, before purchasing the exclusive right to manufacture and sell Dr. J. Dovec Dods' Celebrated Imperial Wince Hers, had them tested by two distinguished medical practitioners who pronounced them a valuable estic or housemaid of any | cal practitioners who pr kind was required for service. After securing the place, she would remain long enough to discover the locality of the silverware, jovels and other valuables, and would then with the aid of accomplices "clean the house out." She usually boarded at the most fash in all properties, will not highly approve by J. In the locality of the silverware, in the silverware, is the silverware, in the silverware in the ionable boarding houses, dressing in elegant style, and acting the lady in all particulars. She is not above twenty years of age and is very highly accomplished, having during the six years which she has devoted to crime, paid particular attention to her education She is an accomplished planist, and convers es readily upon all topics. When arrested at her boarding-house, in Bleecker street, the detectives ascertained that she was in the habit of eating from her own dishes, they being silver, and that she used silver spoons, forks, napkin rings, baskets, &c., all of her own property. Here she passed as the wife of Licut. Col. Davis, of the Union army. of Lieut. Col. Davis, of the Union army. When an advertisement appeared which attracted her attention, she would leave her boarding house, stating that she would be abmost every variety of disease incident to the human sent about a week or ten days. She would thon don the garb of a domestic and make application for the place, which she usually succeeded in getting. Her appearance was prepossessing and her manners engaging, so much so that she has often been made a company to the storage of the system! In the proposed and prolong life!

Judge Peters being appointed one of the Committee to introduce the "great unwashed" there was a circle formed, on one side of which stood the General and the Judge; those wishing to be introduced being obliged to walk across from the other side and after paying their respects retire on either side, to make way for others.
"One individual—who, from his manner evidently thought it the most important event of his life-being dressed within an . inch thereof-was seen elbowing his way through the dense mass congregated near the door, and the pressure took off his cont-tails, leave nothing but the body of his otherwise faultless dress-coat. In his excitement he know nothing of his loss; but having gained the front of the circle he strode across the vacant space with the air of a man who thinks he is creating a sensation. And, you'll better believe he thought right; for the moment the Judge saw him approaching he turned to the General, "I have introduced you to Tag and Rag, and now here comes Bob tail!"

A Dutchman looking for a person by the name of Dunn, who ewed him a 'small account, asked a wag near Sweeny's eating house where No. 66 was, as he wished to find house where No. 66 was, as he wished to find Mr. Dunn. The wag told him to go to Sweeny's, and the first person at the first table was the gentleman he was looking for. The Dutchman went in, about as slow as a jackass to a peck of oats, and this 'first gentlemen,' happened to be an Irishman.

'Are you Dunn?' said the Dutchman.

WASHING MACHINE

PATENTED JUNE 8, 1858. THIS machine is so very simple in construction, and efficient and easy in operation, that a boy or girl 10 or 12 years of age can perform the services of Washing with ease, and do it in 1-4 the time that a grown person can without a Machine. This is a great saving to those that hire; also, in the hone and winseles of those whe ere considered. also, to the bone and muscles of those who are com pelled to endure the trials of the washing day. This Machine is a great self-labor saring Invention It is the universal expression of those who have sed it, and they are legion, that the hitherto lor and laborious work of washing day is "made quick and easy," by the use of this machine; and the time is now at hand when no family should be without one.

The Proprietors have no hesitancy in saying that this is the acmo of Washing Machine Invention, and worth more than all others combined t is in fact the " NE PLUS ULTRA" in this line of invention.
