Horse THIEVES ABOUT .- The Harrisburg Union of Monday says :—The horse thieves have been operating quife extensively of late in the rural districts. The latest victim in this region was Mr. Samuel Bowman; residing in Cumberland county, a few miles from the river, who lost a horse valued at $150, a few nights ago. The same night another gentleman, a near neighbor of Mr. Bowman, lost's new buggy and set of harness worth $150. The country is full of straggling thieves ust now, and farmers should keep their stables well secured.

Acquirten. -- In the United States District Court, at Pittsburg, Joseph C. HAYS, late postmaster at Meadville, removed on the charge of S. Newton Petris, of opening a letter of the latter, was honorably acquitted, and the jury petitioned the President to restore Mr. Hays to his former position.
