Letter from a Judge of the U. S. Supreme

Some time in the latter part of the last that, when the apppointment was announced, ceptance and thanks. the question was asked by almost everybody. who is Daniel F. Miller?" He was a man unknown to fame, and the general impression was that "the honest Abe" had elevated to the highest legal tribunal of the nation an old crony of his with whom he had been accustomed to crack jokes, during court term, in the western districts. At length we learn something of the man from himself. If we cannot ascertain who he is, we are at least informed what he is-and the information is satisfactory to us. If Judge Miller is as sound a lawyer as he is a politician, we must give the President credit for having made one good appointment. -

The Judge, in a letter dated "Keokuk, Iowa, Nov. 11, 1862," declining on account of his professional engagements to attend a "grand jubilee of the friends of Constitutional liberty and of the Union," thus declares his sentiments:

"The recent elections have gladdened my heart more than I can find language to express, for I feel that by the success of the Democracy we shall have a speedy restora-tion of the Union and Constitutional liberty. I am an old Clay Whig, as you all know, and when that party went down, I united with the Republicans, in the hope and belief that it would succeed to all the loyal and na-tional virtues of the Whig party, and that we would have Whig principles and policy pre-wail under another name. But I got more than I bargained for. It was not in the covenant that we should have civil war as a consequence of Republican success; that the public treasury was to be plundered by wholesale; that "free soil" in loyal States should be covered with martial law; that" free speech" should be chained in the dungeons the bastile; that free homes should be sacked to desolation, and the free men should be confined in its practical application to the negroes of the South, and the Abolition wing of the Republican party at the North. No We old Whigs, in uniting with the Republican party, did not consent to be a party to any such violations of Constitutional lib

Had the counsels of Gen. Scott, Millard Fillmore, John J. Crittenden, Stephen A. Douglas, and indeed of all the wise and good men of our nation been heeded, we would not now be afflicted with the civil war that is upon us. They could not have prevented South Carolina from her attempt at revolution but the Crittenden proposition would have saved all the rest of the Southern States and long before this, at a trifling expense of money, and a small loss of life, that rebellious State would have been humbled before the flag of the Union.

But how did the phrenzy of the Abolition leaders meet that proposition? They said away with it, away with it, and crucify all who advocate it. They farther said, leave the slave States go! We can do without them, and we will speedily reap the advantage of a separation. When the conservative element the nation preclaimed itself for the Union. then the Abolitionists assumed that they were the war party, and denounced all others as rebel sympathizers.

That the Abolitionists are in favor of prosecuting the war for their love of the Union. I am sure is not the case. Their object is to abolish slavery only, and if that should fail, they will again speedily raise their old cry of ' let the Union slide."

Gentlemen, it is the mission of the Demo-cratic party to save the Union. cratic party to save the Union.

It has always been a loyal and national party; it has ever upheld Constitutional law as the only saleguard of freedom. It was the party that hurled from power the authors of the alien and sedition laws, sixty years ago, and for all that period they guided our ship of State successfully and gloriously through the waves of civil commotion and

The Abolition leaders had so little idea of the character of the contest they were enter-ing upon, that they proclaimed the war would be over in sixty days. They have had all the money they asked for, all the men they had asked for, and yet the war wages with unexampled fury at the end of 500 days. The result for the last 18 months de-monstrates clearly the necessity of a universal change of rulers, and as old Whigs claim to love their country more than party, I hope they will all speedily unite under the Democratic flag, for the salvation of our Union. Respectfully, yours,
Daniel F. Miller.

Taxing Cattle.—A proposition has been made in Congress, by Mr. Lehman, of Pa., to modify the national tax law so as to remove the tax on cattle, calves and sheep, slaughtered. The tax has to be added to the price of the meat, and thereby imposes a heavier tax upon the poor man than the rich oneinasmuch as the former generally has a better appetite than the latter.
