Commanding whom, again I ask? Only the military forces of the Department of the Oliso, but not a single citizen in it— ' baving ordered that all sales of arms, powder, lead and percussion caps be prohibited until further orders," Where, sir, is the law for all that? Are we

a conquered province governed by a military proconsul? And so then it has come to this, that the Constitution is now suspended by a military general order, No. 151 Sir, the constitutional right to keep and bear arms car-ries with it the right to buy and sell arms; and fire arms are uscless without powder, lead and percussion caps. It is our right to have them, and we mean to obey general or-ders Nos. 1 and 2, instead of No. 15. [Loud applause.] But I read further: "and that any violation of said order will be followed by the confiscation of the goods sold and the seizure of the stock of the vendor."

Is the man deranged? confiscation, indeed? Why, sir, the men who are clothed now with a listle brief authority, seem to think of nothing except taxation, emancipation, confisca-tion, conscription and every other word ending in tion. [Laughter.] But general order No. 1 says "No man shall be deprived der having been extended by the Major General to cover the entire department, is hereby promulged."

promulged--" for immediate obser-Yes, promalged—"for immediate obser-vance throughout the States." Can military insolence go further? Is this the way the military is to be in strict subor-dination to the civil power? And does the Colonel commanding the Eighteenth United States Infantry thus undertake to "promulgo" negro, is in the second section of this general order No. 15, alluding to the recent destruction of a Democratic printing press by what the Colonel commanding the 18th U. S. Infantry, drawing it mild after the fashion of Sarey Gamp "calls a popular demonstration," Sarey Gamp "calls a popular demonstration," and yet not one of the perpetrators of this outrage, although soldiers and under milita-ry law, have been punished, nor ever will be. Yet at just such a time of lawless violence, it is proposed that the people shall be dis-armed. Never. [Loud cheers.] Sir, I repeat now what I believe to be the true programme for these times. Try every question of law in your courts, and every question of a win your courts, and every question of politics before the people and through the ballot-box; no resistance to law; but meet and repel all mobs and mob vio. lence by force and arms on the spot. [Great Spring BARLEY, and continued cheering.]
