

AMERICAN VOLUNTEER.

JOHN B. BRITTON, Editor & Proprietor.

CARLEISLE, PA., JUNE 11, 1863.

RALLY; DEMOCRATS!

The Democratic Club of Carlisle, will meet in their Hall, "the Cumberland Engine House," on Saturday evening next, June 13.

J. U. WUNDERLICH, Secretary.

MEETING FOR THE SOLDIERS.—A meeting of more than ordinary interest is to be held in the 1st Presbyterian Church of this place next Thursday evening, at 7 o'clock.

The Rev. Dr. W. CHIDLOW, of Ohio, the famous "Soldier's Friend," a most stirring orator, and other interesting speakers from Philadelphia, are expected to make addresses.

It is hoped that as this is the first meeting for this cause in our town, it will be one every way worthy of ourselves and the cause.

CATHEDRAL DEDICATION.—The dedication of the new Lutheran Church, in Newville, will take place on Sunday, the 21st inst.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.

HAMPDEN AND EAST PENNSYLVANIA.—The Democrats of Hampden and East Pennsylvania townships held a mammoth meeting at Sporting Hill, on Saturday evening last.

SOUTHAMPTON.—The Democrats of Southampton township held an interesting meeting at the School House, in Clearburg, on Friday evening, June 5.

UPPER SOUTHAMPTON.—The Democracy of Upper Southampton assembled at Oak Grove on Saturday, May 23d, and organized a Democratic Club by the election of S. M. Werry, President, and Wm. D. Means, Secretary.

DICKINSON AND PENN.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democrats of Dickinson and Penn townships was held in Centerville, in front of Rebeck's Hotel, on Wednesday evening, June 3d.

NEWTON.—The Democrats of Newton township held another large and enthusiastic meeting at Oakville, on Thursday evening, June 4.

SILVER SPRING AND MONROE.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democrats of Silver Spring and Monroe townships was held at Leitch's tavern, on Saturday evening, June 6.

SPRING CLOTHING.—Livingston, North Hanover Street, is fully prepared for an immense Spring business.

The number of soldiers now in the hospitals at Washington is about six thousand.

WILL THEY LET THE SOLDIERS DECIDE?

The Abolition or Jacobinical papers of this and other States have shed many crocodile tears because the Constitution does not allow soldiers in the field the right of suffrage.

It is sheer mockery, therefore, in the Abolitionists to profess regret because of the provision in the Constitution which forbids soldiers voting in the field.

But, as the Blacksnake Abolitionists profess so much solicitude for "our poor soldiers," we have a proposition to submit.

Now, Messrs. Blacksnakes—you men who falsely profess to be the soldier's friends, and who preach up the doctrine that "the President is the Government," will you agree that the soldiers shall select, by vote, their own commanders?

Let our list be published an extract from a letter written by Dr. M. C. LAYTON, (now of Paris) in which it was shown that the Federalists of 1812 had opposed Madison and the war, and had even gone so far as to seek the life of the then President.

We pronounce the above an unvarnished falsehood. In our remarks on Dr. M. C.'s letter we made no reference whatever to the course "pursued by the Democrats of the present day."

The Herald regrets that bulky Burns did not raise VALLANDIGHAM "to the top of the tallest tree in Ohio."

Look out for Miss M. A. FIELDS' Grand Combination Troupe, on Thursday evening, June 11, at Rheem's Hall.

SPRING CLOTHING.—Livingston, North Hanover Street, is fully prepared for an immense Spring business.

Brig. General Russell, it is said, suppressed one newspaper for calling him a knave, and another for commencing his name with an R instead of an H.

THE DEMOCRACY WAKING UP.

Editor of Volunteer.—Thinking that perhaps you and your many readers would be pleased to hear of the deeds and doings of the Democracy of Cumberland Valley, I am glad to be able to inform you that never was there a greater display of spirit and zeal for the good cause than exists to-day throughout the Country.

I had the pleasure of attending one of these meetings on Saturday night last, in Silver Spring township. As we neared the place of rendezvous, we met large companies on their way to attend the meeting; yet we could not but express surprise on our arrival to find the place literally thronged with people.

In a short time the speakers arrived, and the eager crowd was addressed from the door of the hotel, first by Mr. M'Laughlin of your place, who spoke over an hour with great interest to the audience.

The Democrats "CONSPIRACY" CASES.—A couple of months ago, our readers will remember, several Democrats of Berks county were arrested by the minions of the administration, on the charge of treason, or "conspiracy against the Government."

The "CONSPIRACY" CASES.—The final hearing of Messrs. Seidel, Muthart, Reed and other citizens of Berks county, who, together with Philip Huber, of Lancaster county, were arrested some time since on the grave charge of conspiracy against the Government of the United States, took place on Tuesday before Commissioner Heik, of the U. S. District Court.

Let facts decide! Joshua R. Giddings, one of the earliest and noisiest Abolitionists, is our Consul in Canada.

How ARE OUR DRESSES TO BE MADE?—A contemporary answers the foregoing question in the following lively manner:—"By a sewing machine, of course. We trust that the day is over in which needle drudgery sets a feeble opposition to the musical click of the Wheeler & Wilson machine."

THE HERALD REGRETS THAT BURNSDID NOT RAISE VALLANDIGHAM "TO THE TOP OF THE TALLEST TREE IN OHIO."

AN ALARMING ADMISSION.—In refusing to issue a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Mr. Vallandigham, Judge Leavitt of Cincinnati, said:

THE N. H. DEMOCRAT.—It is a notable fact that all the Abolitionists who are loudest in their denunciations of the conscription act are over age, or have money to purchase exemption.

HOW UNION LEAGUES ARE FORMED.

Newswoman, June 8, 1863. A few weeks ago the present editor of the Shippensburg News, induced by love of Country, called a mass meeting of the "loyal" citizens of Newburg and vicinity for the purpose of forming a Union League.

It is important, says the Chicago Times, that those public men by whom this awful civil war might have been prevented, but who willfully precipitated it, should not escape, for a single day, the just responsibility which will finally bury their names under a load of detestation and obloquy.

Our doctrine is that all questions of law should be tested through the judiciary, and all questions of policy decided through the ballot box.

It is asserted that a prominent radical member of the last Congress expressed the opinion that the Southern people never could be subjected.

THE CONCLAVE.—Amongst the distinguished visitors recently or at present in Washington are Governor Morton, of Indiana; Gov. Blair, of Michigan; Governor Curtin of Pennsylvania; and Senators Chandler of Ohio; and Wilson and Sumner of Massachusetts.

THE NEW YORK INDEPENDENT.—The New York Independent says, Generals do not thrive under the drip of the Capitol. At thirty six hours' ride from Washington, armies and generals succumb.

THE REPUBLICAN OF THE LONE STAR.—We have news from Matamorras that General Sam Houston is a candidate for Governor of Texas, and that, notwithstanding all the efforts of his competitors, he will be elected.

THE N. H. DEMOCRAT.—It is a notable fact that all the Abolitionists who are loudest in their denunciations of the conscription act are over age, or have money to purchase exemption.

SPEECH OF HON. W. BICKEL.

Ex-Governor BICKEL was one of the speakers before the monster mass meeting of Democrats, held in Independence Square, Philadelphia, on the evening of the 1st inst.—a meeting which was pronounced by the Levity "the largest ever held in Philadelphia."

It is not my intention to discuss the primary causes, the present aspect or the probable results of the bloody strife now raging between the Government and the revolted States, or to notice the measures and policy of the Administration in the management of this fearful conflict.

The Constitution declares that "no law shall be passed abridging the freedom of speech or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble to petition the Government for a redress of grievances," and it must be presumed that the people will quietly submit to laws or pretended laws in violation of these sacred guarantees, much less be stripped of their rights without even the pretence of law.

THE VOICE OF NEW JERSEY.

GREAT MEETING AT NEW BRUNSWICK. HUNDREDS UNABLE TO GAIN ADMISSION TO THE HALL.

The Editor of Vallandigham denounced an Outrage, a bold, high-spirited usurpation of the rights of the people of New Jersey, in response to a call inviting the people of Middlesex county to give expression to their opinion on the arrest of Mr. Vallandigham.

The assembly was called to order by Judge Spear. He said that he wanted it to be understood that they had come to hold a meeting in opposition to the arrest of Mr. Vallandigham.
