From Hooker's Army. A Brilliant Cavalry Battle on the Rappahannock.

Bluart's Rebel Cavalry Defeated.

From the Army of the Potomac, we have becounts of a brilliant cavalry battle between the forces of Pleasanton and Stuart. At sylight of the 9th, Pleasanton's forces ssed the Rappahannock in two columns, mosed the Ruppendance in the left at he right at Beverly's Ford, and the left at folly's, six miles below. The fords were tage without loss, and with slight skirmishing, and with slight skirmishing, mile from the river, the right, under Bu rd, fought with the rebel brigade under ford, rought with the report original under Jones, and subsequently both columns engaged the whole rebel force of Stuart, driving brigade of rebel cavalry, and, taken in flank by another brigade, cut their way out from overpowering numbers. They lost heavily. leneral Gregg, of Pennsylvania, commanded a left column. The Rebels were commandby Fitzhugh Lee, W. F. Lee, Jones, Field Robinson, and were under orders for a id into Maryland, which has been anticipated and checked. Colonel Divis and Lieu-enaut Colonel Irvin, of New York Cavalry, Captain Davis, of the 6th Pennsylvania Cav alry, and other gallant officers, were killed. hundred prisoners and a stand of col rs were captured.

Of the 6th Pennsylvania Cavalry, Captain Davis was killed by a shell; Major Robert Morris is missing, Lieut. R. Ellis received a shot through his leg, and Capt. Leiper was out with a sabre.

The loss of the enemy is said to be fearful. It was undoubtedly a desperate and bloody ombat; but it succeeded in thwarting the plans of Gen. Lee to get into the rear of the irmy of the Rappahannock, and lay waste the fertile horder counties of Maryland and

The enemy's cavalry, about 250 strong, The enemy's cavalry, hoods to actually, and the Potomac near Poolesville on Thursday morning at daybreak; and drove the patrols of the Sixth Michigan cavalry back to within three miles of that town.— The enemy then recreated to Seneca, burned the camp of the Michigan company, returned wn the towpath and recrossed the river. We lost four men killed one badly wounded. The enemy left on the field one lieutenant and one private killed.

Rebel Reports from Vicksburg. The Rebel Cavairy Cut Their Way into Vicksburg.

A Most Desperate Fight at Milliken's Bend.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The following extracts are taken from the Richmond Disputch of the 10th:

JACKSON, Miss., June 6.—Gen. Pemberton has sent word that he can hold Vicksburg, and Gen. Johnson is to take his time to organize and discipline his forces.

MOBILE, June 9 .- A special to the Tribune from Jackson, duted the 8th, says there are many rumors, the most reliable of which is that General Kirby Smith, instead of being at Port Hudson, has taken Milliken's Bend and cut off Grant's supplies.
It is reported that Jackson's cavalry have way to Yicksburg. Jackson has evidently done something.

Heavy firing is heard from Vicksburg .-

Grierson is believed to have been driven five miles from Clinton, Louisiana. the Advertiser and Register, from Jackson, 8th, says: "A courtier from Vicksburg reports cheeringly. Our men are fatigued but in good spirits. Our loss is a little over 500. Col Marks, of Louisians, is morfully wounded. Waddel's battery lost 12 killed and 23 son at Memphis. JACKSON, June 8 .- A scout, just in from Vicksburg, reports all working well. The men are in good spirits, but are somewhat wearied from lying in the trenches and exposure to the sun. Grant is slowly advancing by huilding parallels, which are four hundred yards from the outer works. There has been no general assault for ten days past. There is plenty of ammunition and provisions at Vickshurg, and the soldiers and citizens are confident of the result. Our entire loss during the series of assaults does not exceed six hundred. There was heavy firing with muskets and artillery yesterday, and artilery to day.

M.BILE, June 9.—A private dispatch from Jackson, 8th instant, reports Vicksburg all right. Kirby Smith is in possession of Milken's Bend. The Register of to day has the following:
Our dispatches from the Southwest still continue to be of the most cheering character. The brave garrison of Vicksburg is as confident of success and determined as ever, and Kirby Smith, with ten thousand men, is said to occupy Milliken's Bend, some twenty miles above Vicksburg, on the right bank of the Mississippi, and to cut off Grant's supplies. It will be noticed that all the reports c in the fact-that the Yankee losses at Vicksburg and Port Hudson have been enormous

The Fight at Milken's Bend-A Desperate Affair---Conduct of the Negroes:

Mempus, June 12.—The steamer Fort.
Wayne arrived here from below to-day.—
She brings no later dates than the 8th. No guerillas were seen on the way up.

The fight at Milliken's Bend on Sunday last was a sanguinary affair, much larger than was at first reported. The Rebels under McCullough, were 2,500 strong, while the Federal forces consisted of three negro regiments and the 23d Iowa regiment. CAIRO, June 12 .- In the fight at Milliken's Bend on Saturday, the rebels were 1,800 strong, while our force was less than 1,000, including over 600 negroes. The rebels at first drove our forces, nearly surrounding

The rebels made a desperate charge at daylight, when the negroes broke in confusion, but on finding that their captured companions were being slaughtered they were radical, and with great desperation drove the rebels back. The loss was heavy on both

The guerillas destroyed portions of the railroad track near Germantown, last night, the damage was but slight and soon repaired. The rebel force in Northern Mississipp have all been sent to reinforce General Johnson. The fight was conducted with energy and desperation by our forces, and the rebels held at bay until a gunboat came to our assistance. Eye witnesses report our loss in killed at 134, including 100 of the colored troops, and about the same number of wounded .-The list of killed is very large in consequence; many of the wounded being killed under the cry of "no quarter."

The rebels left one hundred dead on the field, and took away several wagon loads of wounded. The negroes fight better than their white officers, many of whom, it is said,

About the time the battle was over, a coltimn of rebels made their appearance at Young's point.

All citizens and transient visitors had been JOB PRINTING reatly executed at this put under arms, but no attack had been made when our informant left.

It is vouched for by numbers of my conrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's coldprated bettery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great dehility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentory. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

Died.

On Friday evening the 12th inst., Juli ARRETT, daughter of John O. and Jane Halert, aged 2 years, 7 months and 7 days.

Little Julia how we loved thee, None on earth can never tell; The much afflicted yet we grieved, At the grave to say farewell. Thou has left thy mother's side, Little Julia child of pain; God in wisdom bath removed thee;

And in heaven we'll meet again. Notice.
