Mosers Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is youched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have PHILADELPHIA, August 23rd, 1862 are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all south-east corner of Market Square, and made the circumstances, of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's colebrated battery, and under the immediate goods, at the lowest market rates. His stock composure attendant upon my arduous duties; I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the larges and was the secondary to the heavier. lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heighbourd by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force ungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospita scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under those aircumstances: and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited lands as best suited me. An acquaintence who visited me, at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank Ged for it, getting botter. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months,: for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I lowe, the certainty of life which, that taked the place of vague fears—to your which, has taked the place of Aggue fears—to your Bitters, will I owe the glorious privilege of again thusat classing to my bosom those who are dearest to me in Syrups & Molassas, Mackarel, Salmon,
