contence to the penalty of death in General Orders No. 84, took place to day. More than ordinary interest was exhibited in this exeention of military law, and it is estimated that not less than 25,000 persons were present. The ground was well selected, and every arrangement so complete, that no accident cecuricd to mar the selemnity of the semi-circular elevation, partially surrounding the place of execution. Previous to the eve eution, the scene presented a remarkable view to the spectator. Two of the sentenced were Protestants, two Catholics, and the fifth a Hebrew. The spiritual advisers of each were present, administering the last conso lations of, religion. The criminals were sit ting upon their respective coffins with the yawning graves in the rear. The troops

At the order to fire thirty six muskets were discharged, and in stant death, as announced by the surgeons in attendance, was the result. The bodies were placed in their respective graves, and the dergy performed the religious services over the deceased.

The spectacle was an unusual one. The Catholic, the Protestant and the Hebrew stood side by side, each ut cring prayers for the departed souls.

We call particular attention to the following r markable and well anthentiqued cure of on nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by Bitters." PRILADELPHIA, August 23rd, 1802 Messes Jones & Erans,—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for, by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous dutice, I was exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital.

This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on boart the White House, and sent to this city on boart the Steamer. State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low a nay say, one could be and still. been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did for a a morsel down, it was immediately thrown . p gain.

I could not even Frep a glass of water on my tomach. Life could not last under these circumstances: and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unanocess ully; to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited such disposition of my limited funds as bost suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking thourthe gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God first, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles. I have graded to bounds and I seed one of the state of the stat des, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and laughter, from whom I have heard nothing for sighteen months,: for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of High which has taked the place of vague fours—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again-clusping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in
