PHILADELIMA, August 23rd, 1862 Messre, Jones & Brais. — Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's Gernaan 'Bitters' has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I and, and have been for the last four years, a momber of Sherman's celebraited battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayers. Through the dxposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and avas, for soventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great fability, heightened by This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysoutery. I was then removed from the White House, and scatt to this city, on, board the Steamer "State of Maine," from which Hand-el on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still:ro-tain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was insightably thrown up again. I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not hast under these circum-stances: and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfulhad been working initiality, though insuccessingly, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Arch-or, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited and disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited has a best suited me. An acquaintance who visited has a best suited me. An acquaintance who visited has at the hospi-tal, Mr. Frederick Steinhron, of Sixth belew Arch Street, advised me; as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am how, thenk God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bot-rites, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguino of being cornitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the cortainty of Ho which has taked the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again elasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.
