WOODWARD AND CIVIL LIBERTY CURTIN AND KIDNAPPING!

Wuy Don't HE Sign It?-The shoddy can didate, Curtin, recommended the passage of a law to prevent the payment of laborers at iron works, &c., in store orders. The law was passed. The manufacturers came down upon him and threatened him with their opposition if he signed it and made it a law. The Governor's knees got weak before their power and he has refused thus far to do this act of justice for the working man. Working men can you vote for Andrew G. Curtin?

WOODWARD AND WISDOM CURTIN, AND CONSCRIPTION.

Curtin's Treatment of a Wounded Soldier.

The following affidavit of our brave young townsman, Mr. WILLIAM WALTON, who served faithfully in the army of the Potomae for a year and a-half, and who was honorably discharged on account of a severe wound he received in battle, will be read with indignaion by patriotic men of all parties, and particularly by our brave soldiers who have been falsely told that Shoddy Curring the "sol dier's friend." This poor young man, who had been robbed of his hard carned money by some intensely "loyal" thief in Baltimore, arrived in Harrisburg, wounded, renniless and hungry, and so sick that he was scarcely able to walk on crutches. He made his way to the Executive Department, to appeal to the so-called "soldier's friend" for assistance. All the aid he asked, and which he was entitled to receive, was "transportation home." CURTIN ORDERED THE WOUNDED SOL-DIER FROM HIS OFFICE, called him a 'loafor," and said to him "if you want to go home, go on the freight train!" We have heretofore said that CURTIN was cold-blooded, unfeeling man-a selfish, calculating plotter-who is now attempting to use the soldier for a stepping stone to power and plunder; but we did not suppose that he or any other man could be so heartless as to treat a wounded soldier as he treated our respected young townsman. Had WALTON been a black soldier-" an American citizen of African descent"-or had he been a shoddy contractor, or a "loyal" thief, the favor he asked would have been cheerfully granted; but he is a white man, and therefore left the Executive chamber branded by Gov. Curtin " A loafer." And this is the Currin who is paraded before the people as the "soldier's friend!" He is about such a friend as the wolf is to the lamb .-

But to the affidavit of Mr. Walton:

Cumberland County, ss.

Personally appeared before me, M. Holcomb, a Justice of the Peace in and for Cumberland county, WILLIAM WALTON, who upon his solemn oath says, that I (Walton) belonged to the army of the United States: 11th Pa. Vol., Company A, for the term of eighteen months, which I served. On my ay home to Carlisle, I lost forty-five dollars Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the State of Pennsylvania, with my discharge, to get transportation home to Carlise. When I laid in my complaint to Andrew G. Curtin, he said "get out of my office; I want no loafing here; if you want to go home, go on the freight train," and then I went to Bridgeport, and my brother gave me money to go home.
WILLIAM WALTON.

Sworn before me the 3d day of October, M. HOLCOMB, J. P.

Mr. Lewuel Todd has "a way of his wn" to get out of a scrape. Having asserted in a speech at Mount Holly, that a certain Judge HALL or HALE had said that in a conversation with Judge Woodwarp, the latter had avowed himself a "believer in the doctrine of secession," and this slander having been branded by Judge Woodward himself to screen himself by a lame and fatile exby him at Mount Holly! According to Mr. heard somebody say that he had been told that Judge Woodward had mentioned before somebody that he (Woodward,) had avowed himself "a believer in the doctrine of secession!" This is Mr. Todo's explanation of GEORGE W. WOODWARD. dozen of Republicans who heard his speech that he did not mention the name of Mr WRIGHT at all. We may mention also that Mr. WRIGHT is a zealous supporter of Judge WOODWARD, and for weeks has been on the stump urging the people to vote for him. If we had room we would publish Col. WRIGHT'S great speech delivered recently at Wilkesbarre. In that speech he spoke of Judge SAMUEL SHIREMAN, of Lower Allen. Woodward in exalted terms, and urged the people, as they "valued their interests and onor, not to touch so unclean a man as And. By order of the Democratic County Meet-G. CURTIN, the shoddy candidate." Such being Col. WRIGHT's position, it is not very GEORGE W. NORTH, of Newville. likely that he would circulate a vile slander against his own candidate for Governor. Mr. Topp was unfortunate in attempting to make Col. WRIGHT the father of an infamous fabrication. Col. WRIGHT being a Wood- JOHN McCOY, of Hopewell.

WOODWARD AND VICTORY:

This is the last paper we shall issue previous to the election. During the contest now soon to be decided, we have discharged our duty to the best of our ability, and, as we are glad to know, to the satisfaction of our political friends. In our next it will be for us to publish the result. We feel a confidence in the people and a just God, and therefore believe that it will be our pleasure to announce a triumphant victory for the people. The conspirators against our country-those miscreants who, years ago, sneer ngly announced that the American flag was a "flaunting lie," and that they desired to see the "Union slide"-are at work with a desperation unparalleled in political warfare. With their pockets filled with "green-backs," they are approaching the venal and corrupt, and no means will be spared by them to accomplish their infamous designs. Men of Cumberland county! the time for argument has gone by. DO YOUR DUTY AT THE POLLS. Remember the fearful responsibility that rests upon your shoulders, and to work! to work! Sound the bugle blast-" WOODWARD AND VICTORY!" THE POLLS! TO THE POLLS!!

Facts for the People.

WHAT IT COSTS TO FREE THE NEGROES. The Curse of Abolition Rule.

THE WAR DEBT AND WAR TAXES .- If the war ceased to-morrow the debt of the Union (according to a careful calculation recently made at Washington,) would be 3,000,000,000 of dollars! Pennsylvania's share of this in Baltimore, and had money enough left to bring me to Harrisburg, Pa. I called on county's share would be $5,00,000,000!! Cumberland berland county's share of the interest of the war debt, to be paid yearly, $413,811 36!

Let it be remembered, that this does not include the Pensions, Bounties to honorably discharged soldiers, &c., &c. 170,000 claims for pensions were allowed at the Surgeon General's office to invalids, widows, &c., up to September 1st, 1863. The whole number of pensioners cannot be less than 250,000 !-And this, at $8 per month for each, will be $24,000,000 per annum.

We have presented these facts and figures because the people have a right to know what their burdens are or may be-they are about to vote upon the question whether those who have created this immense debt-the powers at Washington-and those who have had so large a share of it-the corrupt powers at Harrisburg, of which A. G. Cuntin is the head, should longer remain in places where must be raised by TAXATION!!

Examine Your Tickets.

When a hunter wants to make a sure shot, fore he pulls the trigger. So let every Democratic voter first examine his ticket before he presents it at the ballot-box. GREAT DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT LEWISBURG, UNION COUNTY.

Judge Woodward Addresses the

SPEECHES OF CARRIGAN AND WITTE. Thursday, the 1st, was a glorious day for Union county. Lewisburg was literally inundated with Democrats. Such a monster meeting was never before held in the county. A spontaneous outpouring of the people followed the announcement that Judge Woodward, who was Attending the regular term of the Supreme Court at Sunbury, would be present. Every township sent banners, processions and flags, to greet and welcome but for the cruel course they have pursuel their chosen candidate—the champion of the Constitution-the Defender of Liberty. When it had ceased, he stopped forward and spoke sub. SAND MEN .- It is reported from Washington stantially as follows:

But there are God given rights which they cannot; sell—immunities they cannot purchase. The appearance of this vast assemblage re-assures me of that. It is but the counterpart of what I have seen in the various parts of the State—this great upheaving of the people. We are here greet-ed, as we have been in other places, with woman's smile. This is the very best earnest of our success. When childhood's innocence and female leveliness range themselves upon the side of justice, what glittering power of
