Messrs Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain B. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for soventy-two days in the hospital. attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White Rouse, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of Jure. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

Fould not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under those circumstances: and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessful the country of the dread Archive. and seen working faitifully, though unsuccessful-ly, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Arch-er, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. "An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commensed taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for igniteen months. Town said Country, UNDERTAKER SIPE, D.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that he still continues the Undertaking business, and is ready to wait upon customers either by day or by night.—Ready-made COFFINS kept constantly on hand, both plain and ornamental. He has constantly on hand Fisk's Patent Metallic Burial Case, of which he has been appointed the sole agent. This case, is recommended as superior to any of the kind now in use, it being perfectly air tight.

He has also furnished himself with a fine new Rosenwood Heanes and goptle horses, with which he will attend funerals in town and country personally, without extra charge.

Among the greatest discoveries of the age is Welle' Spring Materiaes, the best and cheapest bed now in use, the exclusive right of which I have secured and will be keep confantly on hand.
