nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language has been saved by Bitters." PHILADELPHIA, August 23rd, 1862 Messes Jones & Erant.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofiand's German Bitter's has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my cate. If win, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with infimmation of the lungs, and was for seventy, two days in the hospital. Lance & Event attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dyservery. I was then removed from the White Heuse, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of withinty. For a week or more I was scarcely able to svallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown uponed.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances: and, accordingly, the physicians whe had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archor, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited finds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commeniced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for its getting better. Though, I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I reel sanguing I could not even keep a glass of water on my getting better. Though, I have taken but two not-tles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months,: for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal, To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taked the place of rague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in
