Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoodand's German Bitt vs. Diseases resulting rom disorders of the degestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be less.

will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authentiened cure of one of the action's heroes, whose life to use his own language, "has been saved by Bitters."

PRILADELPHIA, August 23rd, 1862 Mesers Jones & Erons.—Well, gontlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Shorman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous dutice, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the attacked in November-last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a more of down it was immediated, there were careely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances: and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clorgyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospitance. such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two hottles, I have gained free pounds, and I keel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and laughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taked the place of vague fears—to your which has taked the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in

Very truly yours,
