Market Square, 2nd door from cor. Oct. 2, 1863. Jan. 21, '64. Captain JAMES K. KELSO, aged. 44 years, 2 months and 13 days. Poor House Visitors' Report. O the Honorable James II. Graham, Pre-Markets. sident Judge, and Michael Cocklin and Hugh Stuart, Associate Judges of the Court of Cumber-land County: critico of A. L. SPONSLER, Stuart, Associate Judges of the Court of Cumber-land County: We, the persons appointed by said Court, as visitors to the Poor House, for the year 1863, do cortify, that we have visited, the same frequently during the present year, and mostly at times when Mr. Snyder (the stoward,) was not aware of our coming, and invariably found the house in excel-lent order, the several arguments well adjusted, and the bed-chainbers discn and furnished with good and foot beds. Also, everything on the farm Real Estate Agent. CARLISLE MARKET .- Jan. 27, 1864. Dec. 3, '63-6t. Corrected Weckly by R. O. Woodward. be will not find it necessary, for a long time to come, to seek a market for any other long or pormanent Loans, the Interest and Principal of which are pay-able in Gold. Prudence and eff interest must force the minds of those contemplating the formation of National Banking Associations, as well as the minds of all who have idle money on their hands, to the prompt conclusion that they should lose no time in sub-scribing to this most popular Loan. It will soon be beyond their reach, and advance to a handsome premium, as way the result with the "Seven Thir-iy" Loan, when it was all sold and could no lon-ger be subscribed for at-par. It is a Six per Cent Loan, the Interest and Prin-cipal payable in Coln, thus yielding over Nine per Cent, per annum at the present rate of premium on coin. The Rev. C.
