PHILADELPHIA, August 23rd, 1862 Philadelphia, August 23rd, 1862
Messes Jones J. Leans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, sofice of Those bames are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the Tatl Jour years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate cemmand of Captail R. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duries, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital.
This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysontery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have in an above a play as any one could be and still as been about as low as any one could be and still re-min a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was surgedy able to swallow anything, and of I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stonach. Life could not last under these circumstances: and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessful. stances: and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsnecessfully, to rescae me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hove, to try your Butters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months,: for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Frent Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taked the place of vague foars—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are descret to me in lasping to my bosom those who are degreet to me in Very truly yours, IBAAC MALONE. We fully concur in the truth of the above state-nent, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
