will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by Bitters." PHILADELPHIA, August 23rd, 1862

Messrs Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoolland's German Bitters has saved my life. There, is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, amember of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for eventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, beightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from PHILADELPHIA, August 23rd, 1862 This was followed by great deblifty, beightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force
