ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "Acceptance of the computer that "Hordinad's German Bitter" will cure nine touths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the cick, it will be noticed that on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be reachly cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hositation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticaed cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been seved by Bitters."

PHILADELPHIA, August 23rd, 1862 Messrs Jones & Evans .- Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immunity command of Captain R. B. Ayors. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still restain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morred down, it was immediately thrown up again. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances: and, accordingly, the physicians whe had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquesition was well as the best intended. such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at stich best all, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth, below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguing of being permitted to rejoin any wife and daughter, from which I have heard nothing for eighteen months, : for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your inviluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taked the place of vague fears—to your which has taked the place of vague fears—to your Bittel will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest tome in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE. We fully concur in the truth of the above state-ment, as we had despuired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
