Theor is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended and who were fully degrizent of all the circumstances of my case. I and, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Cupitair R. D. Ayers. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous datics, I was tattacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital? This was followed by great dobility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Stanner "State of Maine," from which I land-ed on the 28th of June. Since that fime I have been about a slow as any one could be and still re-tin a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was a scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again. scarcely solid to swallow anything, and ut a didlores a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

 I could not even keep a glass of water on my stemach. Life could not last under those circumstances: and, accordingly, the physicians which had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to essene me from the grasp of the dread Archeer, frankly told une they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a elergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acqualutance who visited me atthe hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arche Street, advised me, as a forforn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank tod for it, gotting botter. Though I have hache bot who bettles, I have gained ten pounds, and I we board nothing for eighteen months, : for, gendlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invitable Bitters I owe the cortainty of life which has taked the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the grious privilege of again elasping to my boson those who are dearest to me in life. Very truly yours, life. Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE. We fully concur in the fruth of the above state-ment, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health. r. Malone, restored to health.
