full Collision at Sea----Steamer Pocahonths Snnk----- Great Loss of Life.

New York, June 2 .- The steamer City of Bath, hence for Washington, has returned, having been in collision with the steamer Personntus, off Cape May. The latter sunk in ten minutes, carrying down forty persons

The steamer Poenhontas, sunk by the City of Bath, was from New Orleans. The latter reports: At 11.50, p. m., saw a steamer lyine ahead; put on helm to port to clear her, and at the same time the helm of the Pocaonias was put to starboard, and the vessels ame together, the City of Bath striking the Pocahontas about the fore rigging. The lath backed off, and was found to be leak ng badly. Cargo was thrown overboard to ghten her forward, and the leak was stopped. Her hoats were sent to the assistance of e Pocahontas, and she lay by the place till ay light, in the hope of saving more of her seuple, a large number having already been eccived on board. Only one man was picked p. Among the lost were Captain Samuel Baxter, her commander; one discharged lieunant, and two engineers, the balance being lischarged soldiers. The body of Captain Frank Halleck, of "Scott's 900," was aboard, and was also lost. The Pockhontas had one ndred and ten persons on board at the ime of the collision

Another account says most of the passer gers of the Pocahontas had retired. Many n started for the upper deck, and the ves was soon discovered to be sinking. The ats were ordered to be lowered, and immestely the engine stopped. The two yessels ned thumping a-few minutes, and then parated. One of the boats was swamped ng the excitement. The other two did bat, for the Pocubontas went down in about enty minutes. Planks and ladders were in overboard, and Captain Lincoln, of City of Bath, threw overhoard scores of servers, but the sea was high and vind fresh, so many of the poor fellows

Ruption of the Pennsylvania Reserved at Harrisburg.

Harrisbung, June 6.—The reception of be Pennsylvania Reserve Corps to-day, by the people of Harrisburg, will hereafter contitute a pleasing event in their history.

The corps arrived at 9 A. M., and were enertained by the military authorities of the part, at the Soldier's Rest, with a splendid collation. The city authorities of Harris-burg then took possession of the veterans, nd in a formal manner, conducted them brough the principal streets of the city to the ont of the State Capitol, where they were mally received by Governor Curtin.

During the procession a salute of one huned gans was fired from Capitol Hill. The former and heads of Departments, the city horities, the 1st New York Artillery, the epartment and civic societies of Harristhe United States officers at this post, adges of the court, with a immense con-188 of citizens and strangers, joined in the Ression. After its arrival in front of the late Capitol, and when the gallant Reserves ere drawn up in line, Governor Curtin adlessed them in substance as follows:
Ile thanked the Mayor and citizens for this

be hearts of the people were stirred to their epith by the noble acts of the Reserves. He only say to the corps, "you have done our whole duty." It was nearly three years our whole duty." It was nearly three years nearly that left the State a mighty army. hat length of time had passed since he anded to them their colors, which they now sturned unstained and unsullied with dishocovered with laurels of renown unevalied in the world's history. They had listed their homes but once; and who has not heard of Round Top or Gettysburg?—
When the rest faltered the Reserves were true and the state of the tue, and to them belongs the glory of driving the enemy from our State. Their deeds have assed into history. There are times when led proud of my office, and here, to-day, theating for all the people, I bid you welcome. Your record is without blemish or I am not equal to the task of speaking heroic dead you have left behind you. pon their graves centres the gratitude of a teat people. From the North and the South, t and West, comes the word of welcome The Keystone to her gallant Reserves.—

Several efforts were made by them to recover what they had lost, but to no purpose. The Sixth corps had reinforced our cavalry thring the night near Cold Harbor. In the afternoon the enemy made a desperate attack on the Sixth corps, but were handsomely repulsed and driven about three-fourth of a mile. Their dead and wounded being left in our possession. Gen. Ricketts' division during the fight took over five hundred prisoners. Our loss was nt severe.

Official Dispatch.

Washington, June 4, 10 a.m. - Major General Dix. New York :- Dispatches from Gen Frant's headquarters, dated 2 o'clock yesterlay afternoon, have just been received. No erations took place on Thursday. Yesterday at 45 o'clock a. m. Gen. Grant made an attack on the enemy's lines, of which he makes the following report:

We assaulted at 4 30 this morning, driving the enemy within his entrenchments at all points, but without gaining any decisive advatages. Our troops not occupy a position close to the enemy, some placed within fifty yards, and are remaining. Our loss was not severe, nor do I suppose the enemy to have lost heavily. We captured 800 prisoners, lost heavily. We captured 300 prisoners, mostly from Breckinridge."

Another later and official report, but not from Gen. Grant, estimates the number of killed and wounded at about 2,000. The following officers are among the killed Col. Haskell, 36th Wisconsin; Col. Porter, 8th New York heavy artillery; Col. Morris.

66th New York.

Among the wounded are General R. Tylor seriously, will probably lose a foot; Colone M'Mahon, 16th New York; Col. Byrnes, 28th was aboard, Massachusetts, probably mortally; Colone Brooks, 53d Pennsylvania.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Scoretary of War.

Official Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, June 5, 1 p. m.—To Major General Dix :-- A dispatch from Gen. Grant headquarters, dated at half past eight last night has been received. It states about seven p. m. yesterday (Friday) the enemy sud-denly attacked Smith's brigade of Gibbon's that they could to save the poor souls still division. The battle lasted with great fury for the Pocabontas went down in about for half an hour,

The attack was unwaveringly repulsed. Smith's losses were inconsiderable.

At 6 p. m. Wilson with his cavalry fell upon the rear of a brigade of Heath's division, which Lee had thrown around to his left, apparently with the intention of ers.

He had previously fought and routed Gordon's brigade of rebel cavalry.

Duning these fights he lost several officers among them Col. Preston, First Vermont cav-alry, killed; Col. Benjamin, Eighth New York cavalry, seriouly wounded. General Stannard, serving in the 18th corps was seriously wounded yesterday (Friday.) Our entire loss in killed wounded and mis sing during the three days' operations around Cold Harbor will not exceed according to the Adjutant General's report, seven thousand

A dispatch from Gen. Sherman dated ves terday, June 5, 8 a. m., thirteen miles west of Marietta, reports that his left is now well round, covering all roads from the South to the railroad about Awkworth. His cavalry has been in Awkworth, and occupies in force all the Awkworth Pass. No other military intelligence has been re ceived by this department.

Official Dispatch. Washington, June 6, 7 A. M.—To Mojor General Dix: We have dispatches from Gen. Grant's headquarters down to six o'clock last evening, which state that there had been no fighting during the day.

The enemy made an attack on Saturday night upon Hanepck, Wright and Smith, but were everywhere repulsed. Hancock's lines ure within forty yards of the rebel works. The rebels were very busy Saturday constructing entrenchments on the west side of the Chickahominy at Bottom's Bridge, and toward the evening threw a party across to the east side.

A dispatch from General Sherman dated yesterday afternoon, June 5th, at 3.30, at Alatoona Creek, states that "the enemy, discovering us moving around his right flank abandoped his position last night and marche off. McPherson is moving to-day for Ackworth. Thomas is on the direct Marietta road, and Schofield on his right.

"It has been raining hard for three days and the roads are heavy. An examination of the enemy's abandoned works here show an immense line, which I have turned with less loss to ourselves than we have inflicted upon him.

"The army supplies of forage and provisions are ample." Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, June 6,-To Major Gen. Dix, New York: Despatches have been received from General Grant's headquarters to day, but they report only certain changes in the position of corps, and contemplated oper-ations. They state that "everything is going on well."

The Chief Quartemaster of the army reports a personal inspection of the depot at White House, and that it is in a most efficient state. All needful supplies on hand, and wagons transport them easily to the army. The wounded are being brought in and transports are not delayed a moment.

"I am now on the railroad at Ackworth my gratitude to your corps. We did Station, and have full possession forward to know, three years ago, that you would within one mile of Marietta. All well,"

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continto to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcholic Stinulants of the worst kind, the de-sire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the re-sult is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's 1850 and doubt. sult is all the horrors attendant upon a drankard's life and death.

For those who desire and WILL HAVE a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Grant BOTTLE HOOFLAND'S GERMAN 'ITTERS and mix with THREE QUARTS OF GOOD BRANDY OR WHISKEY, and the result will be a preparation that will FAR EXCEL in medical virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will COST MUCH LESS. You will have all the virtues of HOOFL AND'S BITTERS in connection with a GOOD article or Liquor, at a much less price than those in icle or Liquor, at a much less price than these in

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. We call attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that 'Hoofland's German Buters' will cure nine tenths of the diseates induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that every large proportion are suffering from debility. Bevery case of that kind can be rendily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are specially removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost. I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under those circumstances: and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though tungucessulty, to reseau me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see at clearways and to usely and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited such disposition of my limited finds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I cornaened taking them the gloomy shadow, of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sunguing of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months, a for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taked the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life. Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

There is no mistake in this. It is vopiched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose name are appeaded, and who were fully segnizint of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate emmand of Captain R. B. Ayors. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the langs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steiner "State of Maine," from which I handed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did for a more I down, it was immediately thrown upon.

We fully concur in the truth of the above state, nont, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
