All the Directors will attend the Second grade, Secondary Department and the High Schools. On Wednesday morning, June 22, at 8 o'clock, the examination of the graduating classes from the High Schools will be examined. On Thursday morning, June 23, at 8 o'clock, the classes for transfer from Mrs. Phillips, Mr. Hampton, and Mr. Williams' schools will be examined. On Friday morning, June 24, at 8 o'clock the classes for transfer from Mrs. Adams and Mr. Comman's schools will be examined. No scholars will be transferred who do not attend the public and private examinations. On Friday evening, June 24, at 7 o'clock there will be an exhibition, in Fehob's Hall, in Declamation, Composition, and other exercises, with Vocal and Instrumental Music, at the close of which prizes will be awarded, and the schools dismissed for vacation. Parents of scholars and citizens generally are invited to attend the examinations and exhibition. Teachers will reserve seats for Directors and Visitors. Children not belonging to the schools, and not accompanied by their parents, will not be admitted. The Philadelphia Evening Telegraph (Sep.) intimates that a forced loan may yet have to be resorted to, to maintain the public credit. The young man Smeltzer, sentenced to be hung at Frederick, Md., for the murder of Miss Nussbaum, is said to have made a confession.

THE WAR NEWS.
AFFAIRS IN GRANT'S ARMY.
Signal Victory of Gen. Hunter—Stanton, Va., Oct. 20. A dispatch from the Army of the Potomac, dated at 10 o'clock on the morning of the 8th inst., at Stanton, reports that we met the enemy at Piedmont last Sunday, the 5th inst., killed Wm. E. Jones, their commanding General, totally routing them after a battle of ten hours duration. We have captured fifteen hundred prisoners altogether, over one thousand men and sixty officers on the field of battle; also, three thousand stand of arms, three pieces of artillery and a vast quantity of stores. We have today effected a junction with Generals Crook and Averill. It is stated in another dispatch, unofficial, dated at Stanton, June 9th, that our infantry are now engaged in burning ties and bending rails east and west of the place. All the Government and railroad buildings have been burned at Stanton. We leave to-morrow. (Signed) R. R. McCLAIN, Cipher-Operator. A dispatch from Gen. Sherman, dated yesterday at 4 P. M., reports that Rebel cavalry having yesterday made a dash into Wilson's line, near Tompkins, Wilson this morning sent out a part of McIntosh's brigade to see where the enemy were. Their pickets were driven back and their outer line forced, the cavalry passing over the intrenchments. About a mile west of Bethesda Church McIntosh's corps Field's Division of the infantry, and having accomplished the purpose of his reconnaissance, retired. He killed and wounded a number of Rebels in his progress, and brought over four or five prisoners. He had sixteen men killed and wounded. Despatches from Gen. Sherman, dated at his headquarters, Big Shanty, Georgia, this morning, have been received. They state that our lines are within four or five hundred yards of the enemy, but no fighting yet. Edwin M. STARBUCK, Secretary of War. JOHN MORGAN'S KENTUCKY RAID. Louisville, June 11.—General Carrington has just received a telegram from General Burbridge, dated at Lexington, at one P. M., saying, "We have heard nothing of or from Gen. Brantlett." The Rebels left here yesterday for Georgetown, and are supposed to have gone east from there. Burbridge started in pursuit with fresh horses last night, and will push them up and will fight them steadily. A messenger who left the capital at four o'clock this morning, reports that General Sherman has been armed to defend the city. The State archives being removed to the fort. The Governor feels confident of holding out until reinforcements shall arrive. A force of three thousand occupy the stockade three miles this side of Frankfort, to prevent the Rebels from reaching that place from Louisville. The Union troops made an attack on the stockade last night, but, repulsed by superior numbers.
