General Butler on Negro Equality.

The Anglo African (organ of the colored people,) has a statement that, recently, a very people,) man colored lady" by the name of Clara Duncan left New York city, in company with a gentleman named Walker, and a ny Miss Busett (white,) for Norfolk, being nent by the American Missionary Association as teachers to the freed people. The account then rends as follows:

Rev. Gen. Whipple that the ladies (white and black) on arriving at Baltimore should occupy the same state-room on board of the heart black) on arriving at Battimore should occu-py the same state-room on board of the boat, All passed pleasantly; they were seated in the upper saloon when the gong sounded for tea. The Clerk invited all down, Miss Duncan with the others. After ten, the Clerk knew the regulations of the boat. Walker we don't allow biggers to cat at the first table. And you go and tell her to come out of that saloun to a place prepared for her, or I shall take her down publicly." During the concernation, the mail agent, by the name of Rollins, stepped up and said that Walker was no gentleman for travelling with a niger wench," neither was Miss Bussett a lady ger wench," neither was Miss Bussett a lady in her state-room until the boat arrived at others are expected soon. Fortress Monroe. All parties were indignant. woodbury. Professor Woodbury submitted the satement to General Butler. On Saturday. March 26th, Professor Woodbury, Superintendent of Schools, Miss Duncan and Miss Bussett were summoned to the presence with the covering both Marietta and the railroad. There are rumors of a battle on the 18th, but we have received no confirmation of it. of General Butler,

The examination is then detailed. Butler wished to know whether ex-Governor Piernegro woman. The negative being given. Butler said if he had, Pierpont should not remain within his lines. The interview terenjoyed. "They shall sit in the salloons, enjoy the state-rooms, and go to the first table if they desire." Butler then ordered Wilson the waiter, to be dismissed from the Baltimore boats. Butler is evidently in favor of a mixture of races, and a perfect equality of the negro with the whites. Miscegenation is clearing the road.
