THE WORLD, Independent Democratic Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly Newspaper.

Union of the World and Argus. Weekly Argus has been united, has to-day five times the aggregate circulation of any Democratic or conservative newspaper. It addresses weely alone more than 100,000 subscribers and constant purchasers, and reaches at least half a million readers. With the steady increase in circulation which it now enjoys, these numbers will soon be doubled. Nothing less than this should satisf those who believe that the only hope of restoring the Union and the authority of the Constitution over a new distracted and divided country, lies in wresting power from the hunds of those whose fanaticism has helpell to provoke, invite and prolong the war; and that to accomplish this end, no means is so effective as the diffusion, thro' able and enterprising nowspapers, of sound political knowledge among the working men, the thinking men, and the voting men of the North.

It has a large staff of accomplished cerrespondents with all the federal armies, who will telegraph and write to us the latest news from the various seats of war. It has correspondents and reporters in every political and commercial centre in America and Europe, whose letters and dispatches will leave nothing worthy of note unknown to its readers. Special exertions will be used to make its reports of the crops, of the cattle, preduce and money markets, comprehensive and accurate. the country.

The war in which the nation is engaged against armed and infatuated Rebels, and the radical policy of the Administration which prolongs it, have tot spired to bring together upon one platform all conservative, Union loving and Constitution loving sonsorvative, Union loving and Constitution loving men, of whatever former Lame and creed. Many of those who, within the limits of the Constitution, fought the battles of the ballot-box under the lea-dership of those patriotic statesmen of other and better days, Honry Clay and Daniel Webster, together with the masses whose principles were those of such patriots as Andrew Jackson and William L. Marcy, Silis Wright and Stephen A, Douglas, now stand shoulder to shoulder upon the same platform and under the same banner. The platform is a plain one. It is to restore the Union, maintain the Constitution, and enforce the Laws...

It will oppose every violation of THE CONSTITUTION, which is the only hope and bond of Union, and our only authority for exhorting or compelling the allegiance of the South.

It will oppose every infraction of THE LAW, in high places or in low, by rockless and misguided partitants, or by the Administration which has been their example

I could not even keep a glass of water on my again.

I could not even keep a glass of whiter on my somach. Life could not last under these circumstances: and, accordingly, the physicians when it does working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archor, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commonced taking them the glösiny shadow of death receded, and I am now, think God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained the pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have beard nothing for eighteen months, i for, gentleinen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I ove the certainty of life which has taked the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I awe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

We fully concur in the truth of the above state ment, as we had despaired of seeing our camrade' Mr. Mr. 2000, restored to health. John Cuddleback, 1st New York Battery
