THE WORLD,

Independent Democratic Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly Newspaper.

Union of the World and Argus. THE WORLD, to which the New York Weekly Argus has been united, has to-day five bimes the aggregate circulation of any Democrátic or conservative dewepaper. It addresses wisely alone more than 100,000 subscribers and westly alone more than 100,000 subscribers and constant purchasors; and reaches at least half a million roaders. With the steady increase in circulation which it now enjoys, these numbers will soon be doubled. Nothing less than this should satisfy those who believe that the only hope of restoring the Union and the authority of the Constitution over a now distracted and divided country, lies in wresting power from the hunds of those whose fanatioism has helped to provoke, invite and prolong the war; and that to accomplish this end, no means is so effective as the diffusion; throable and enterprising newspapers, of sound politiend, no means is so effective as the diffusion; thro' able and enterprising newspapers, of sound political knowledge among the working men, the thinking men, and the voting men of the North.

Enterprise, industry and money will be liberally expended to make THE WORLD the NEWSPAPER IN AMERICA. Its news from every part of the world will be early and authentic. Wherever the tolograph extends, or railroads run, or steamboats ply, it will gather the latest intelligence. It has a large staff of accomplished correspondents with all the federal armies, who will telegraph and write to us the latest news from the various seats vrite to us the latest news from the various seats of war. It has correspondents and reporters in every political and commercial centre in America and Europe, whose letters and dispatches will leave and disrope, whose letters and dispatches will leave nothing worthy of note unknewn to its renders.

Special exertions will be used to make its reports of the crops, of the cattle, produce and money markets, comprehensive and zecurate. Realizing that the bone and sinew of the country are to be found upon its farms and in its workshops, THE WÖRLD will gather from every quarter information and news concerning Agriculture and Manufactures, and will padeaver to make its issues refactures, and will endeavor to make its issues peouliarly valuable to the Farmers and Mechanics of ordinarly valuable to the Farmers and Mechanics of the country.

The war in which the nation is engaged against armed and infattated Rebels, and the radical policy of the Administration which prolongs it, have conspired to bring together upon one platform all conservative, Union loving and Constitution loving men, of whatever former name and creed. Many of these who, within the limits of the Constitution, fought the battles of the half-ot-box under the leadership of those particule statesmen of other and fought the battles of the ballet-box under the leadership of those patrictic statesmen of other and better days, Honry Clay and Daniel Webster, together with the masses whose principles were those of such patriots as Andrew Jackson and William L. Marcy, Silas Weight and Stephen A, Douglas, now stand shoulder to shoulder upon the same platform and under the same banner. The platform is a plain one. It is to restore the Union, maintain the Constitution, and enforce the Laws.—Whatever makes for this end, the exercise of force or the policy of conciliation, THE WORLD will advocate; whatever makes against 4, THE WORLD will advocate; whatever makes against 4, THE WORLD will oppose. vill oppose.
It will oppose every enemy to THE UNION, whether armed in rebellion at the South or insidiously planting the seeds of disunion and essential disloyalty at the North.

It will oppose every violation of THE CONSTITUTION, which is the only hope and bond of Union, and our only authority for exhorting or compelling the allegiance of the South.

It will oppose every infraction of THE LAW, in
