THE WORLD, to which the New York

Weekly Argus has been united, has to-day five times the aggregate circulation of any Democratic or conservative newspaper. It addresses weely alone more than 100,000 subscribers and constant purchasers, and reaches at least half a million renders. With the steady increase in circulation which it now enjoys, these numbers will soon be doubled. Nothing less than this should satisfy those who believe that the only hope of restoring the Union and the authority of the Constitution over a now distracted and divided country, lies in wresting power from the hunds of those whose fanaticism has helped to provoke, invite and prolong the war; and that to accomplish this end, no means is so effective as the diffusion, thro alle and enterprising newspapers; of sound political knowledge among the working men, the thinking men, and the voting men of the North.

Enterprise, industry and money will be liberally expended to make THE WORLD the NEWSPAPER IN AMERICA. Its news from every part of the world will be early and authentic. Wherever the telegraph extends, or railronds run, or steamboats ply, it will gather the latest intelligence. It

This coffee has been used for more than a contury in Paris, and since its introduction into this country it has been in use by some of the leading. French Restaurants here The Parisians are said to be the obst judges of coffee; and the great favor in which it is held by them is the best recommendation that can be produced for its fine flavor and healthy effects upon the human system.

We put up but one grade of this coffee, and that is of a quality that our customers have found from experience will give perfect satisfaction and meet all the demands of their trade. It is the lowest price that we can recommend.

We do all our business on the most extensive scale, buy by the cargo and soll at only two cents per pound profit.

We put up this coffee in Barrels only, of 125 pounds each. This method of putting it up saves from 2 to 5 cents per pound to the consumer, and by its being in a large quantity it retains its fine flavor much longer in this form than in any other. Wa send with each barrel show cards, circulars and posters, to assist the dealer to introduce it to his customers. We hope our customers will take pains to have them well posted up and distributed, as it will be to their advantage to do so.
