THE WORLD,

An Independent Democratic Daily, Some-Weekly und Weekly Accepager. Union of the World and Argus.

THE WORLD, to which the New York THE WORLD, to which the New York Weekly Logas has been united, has to-day five times the aggregate circulation of any Domocratic or conservative newspaper. It addresses weekly alone more than 100,000 subscribers and constant purchasers, and conclus at loan half contilion readers. With the steady increase in circulation which it now enjoys, these numbers will soon be doubted. Nothing less than this should satisfy those who believe that the only hope of restoring the Union and the authority of the Constitution over a now distracted and divided country. turion over a now distracted and divided country, lies in wresting power from the hands of those whose fanaticism has helped to provoke, lavite and prolong the were and that to accomplish this end, no me are is so edgetive as the diffusion, thre' able and caloring size newspapers, of sound political knowledge augonothe working men, the thinks Talknown of another working men, the fining-ing men, at the voting men of the North. Enterprise, industry and money will be liberally expended to make THE WORLD the NEWSPA-PER IN AMERICA. Its news from every part of he world was be early and mathentic. Wherever the therape extends, or rail coals ran, or sleam-boats ply, it will gather the latest intelligence. It has a large staff of accomplished correspondents with all the federal armies, who will telegraph and write to us the largest news from the various seats of war. It has correspondents and reporters in every political and commercial centre in America and Europe, whose letters and dispatches will leave nothing worthy of none unknown to its readers. Special excitated will be used to make its reports of the crops, of the cattle, produce and money markets, comprehensive and accurate. Realizing that the bone and since of the country are to be true true from and same of the country are to be count inpose to terms and in its workshops, THE WORLD will gather from every quarter information and news concerning Agriculture and Manufactures, and will be feavor to make its issues peculiarly valuable to the Farmers and Mechanics of the country.
