BOROUGH OF CARLISLE.

On Saturday, October 8, at 1 o'clock, P. M.

Let all who are in favor of the restoration of the Union, the supremacy of the Laws, the right of Free Speech, a Free Press, and the enjoyment of Constitutional Liberty, turn out and hear the issues of the day clearly expressed. Let every one who wishes to see the return of Peace and Prosperity, turn out on that day, and with one voice protest against the tyranny, dishonesty, and treason of the present Administration.

Let our noble Democracy and other Constitutional Union men awake, arouse! The enemies of our Country, who trample under foot the Constitution and Law, and our rights as freemen, and who have the effrontery to say that we shall not have peace until white men and negroes are reduced to a common level, must be put down at the ballot-box.

Individual Rights, Free Speech, and a Free Press MUST AND SHALL BE MAINTAINED.

Rally, rally, friends of the Union as it was, and the Constitution as it is.

Eminent speakers from abroad will be present. Their names will be announced in the papers and through the columns of the Democratic county papers in due time.

By order of the Democratic County Committee.

JOHN B. BRATTON, Chairman.

SEE THAT THE SOLDIERS ARE ASSESSED.

We would remind those of our readers who may have relatives or friends in the army of their duty to see that every voter among them is assessed. Examine the Assessor's list, and attend to this important duty forthwith.

DICKINSON COLLEGE.—The Fall Term of this institution has opened well. The new class that has entered, we judge to be, in respect of numbers and character, one of the most promising we have seen for several years.

M'CLELLAN CLUB.—The friends of General George B. M'CLELLAN, in South Middleton township, met in "Centre School House" on Saturday evening, the 17th inst., and organized a "M'CLELLAN Club."

THE BELL-RINGER SPEAKS!

Old granny Seward, the bell-ringer, is on the stump for his golligossie in crime, LINCOLN. A week or so ago he made a speech at Auburn, N. Y., in which he confessed that "old Ann" would have a hard road to travel this fall.

OLD ABE AND THE NEGROES.

THE NEGROES OF BALTIMORE PRESENT THE "SHUTTY JOKER" WITH A BIBLE.—HE MAKES A SPEECH.—Old Abe and the negroes have had much billing and cooing of late. Every two or three days deputations of "American citizens of African descent" visit the White House, either to tender advice to the President, or to make him a present of some kind.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7, 1864. This afternoon a committee of loyal colored people of Baltimore, formally presented to the President an imperial quarto Bible, splendidly bound, costing $550, as a token of their respect and gratitude to him for his active part in the cause of emancipation.

"I can only say, my gentlemen, as I have often said before, it has always been a sentiment with me that all mankind should be free and equal. So far as I have been, or so far as I have been able, I have always acted as I believed was right and just, and have done all I could for the good of mankind. I have, in letters and documents sent forth from this office, expressed myself more fully than I can now. In regard to the great book, I have only to say it is the best gift which God has given man. All the good from the Saviour of the world is communicated to us through this book. But for this book we could not know right from wrong. All the things desirable to man are contained in it. I return you, gentlemen, my sincere thanks for this very elegant copy of the great work of God which you present."

After making this speech to the "gentlemen" composing the negro delegation, the whole party proceeded to dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln and "Bon" and a "few invited guests" took seats promiscuously with the negroes, and old Abe cracked his jokes as usual.

Now, this is all very well. Those who contend for negro equality should put their professions into practice, and this is what Mr. LINCOLN is doing. As to the Bible presented to the President, we doubt whether it will amount to much. Mr. BURNESIDE, the notorious Massachusetts Infidel, once said that "we (meaning the Abolition party) must have an anti-slavery God and an anti-slavery Bible, or we will have none."

Perhaps, then, this Bible which the "loyalists of Baltimore" presented to Mr. LINCOLN, is one of BURNESIDE'S BIBLES. Perhaps it is an "anti-slavery Bible" and endorsed by an "anti-slavery God." If it is, then it was a proper present to make to Mr. LINCOLN, and no doubt he will peruse it carefully.

GENERAL BURNESIDE OUT FOR "LITTLE MAC." Gen. BURNESIDE, it is well known, is one of the pets of the Administration, and a full-blooded Abolitionist. He is, however, a soldier, and he feels for a brother soldier, and will not see him slandered by paid minions and sordid contractors.

"I have known Gen. M'CLELLAN most intimately as a student together, as soldiers in the field, as private citizens. For years we have lived in the same family, and I know him as well as I know any human being on the face of the earth. I know that no more honest conscientious man exists than Gen. M'CLELLAN. I know that no feeling of ambition, beyond that of the success of our cause, ever enters his breast. All that he does is with a single eye, a single view to the success of the government and the breaking down of this rebellion. I know that nothing under the sun will ever induce that man to swerve from what he knows to be his duty. He is an honest, Christian-like and conscientious man; and let me add one thing, he has the soundest head and the clearest military perception of any man in the United States."

Let the people remember that when Pope was defeated and flying towards Washington, Abe Lincoln found it necessary, to save the Capitol, to recall M'CLELLAN to command. Let the people remember that M'CLELLAN did save the Capitol by achieving the two glorious victories over the invading foe at South Mountain and Antietam.

Let the people remember that Abe Lincoln thereupon wrote a letter to M'CLELLAN giving him a "thousand thanks" for his victories. Let the people remember, also, that when M'CLELLAN had defeated the enemy, driven him out of Maryland, saved the Capitol and quieted the fears of the Presidential buffoon, that Abe Lincoln suspended him from command!

Let the people remember that when Pope was defeated and flying towards Washington, Abe Lincoln found it necessary, to save the Capitol, to recall M'CLELLAN to command. Let the people remember that M'CLELLAN did save the Capitol by achieving the two glorious victories over the invading foe at South Mountain and Antietam.

THE FIFTEENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

The Congressional Congress of York, Cumberland and Perry counties assembled at Sholl's Hotel, in Bridgeport, on Thursday last. The Conference was called to order by William Y. Johnson, Esq., of Cumberland. Dr. G. W. Haldeman, of Cumberland, was appointed President of the Conference, and Dr. J. E. Singer, of Perry, Secretary.

A committee was appointed to wait upon Mr. Glessbrenner, and invite him into the Conference. When he appeared, the result of the vote was announced to him by the President; and he expressed briefly his profound sense of the honor conferred upon him, and accepted the nomination, "with all its duties and responsibilities."

Colnel FORNEY, the Editor of the Washington Chronicle, who has carried his unquestioning support of the Administration to such a degree that he is in some danger of going down toward posterity as Colonel Forney, is nevertheless constrained to pay this tribute of praise to the Chicago platform:

"Whatever may be said of that portion of the resolutions of the Chicago Convention which criticizes the Federal Administration, every patriotic man will be rejoiced to see that important body, representing so large a portion of the American people, solemnly declare that the Union must be preserved. Mark the words in which this determination is expressed: 'We will adhere with unwavering fidelity to the Union and the Constitution as the only solid foundation of our strength, security and happiness as a people, and as the framework of government, equally conducive to the welfare of all the States, both Northern and Southern.' This expression is probably the most significant admission that could be presented to the enemies in arms against the Republic. These enemies have looked to the Democratic party and to the Chicago Convention for encouragement in their pretation of separation and dissolution. They have been flattered by the idea, that because Mr. Vallandigham, Mr. Fernando Wood, and a few others, have preached peace doctrines, therefore, this preaching must dissolve us, in other words, Southern independence."

We oppose this remarkable admission to the studied but stupid perversion of sense of Colonel Forney's political friends. And the opposition will be accepted on all hands as a triumphant refutation. It certainly ought to be. Whatever in favor of the conservative party Colonel Forney admits to be true must be
