MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC STANDING COMMITTEE. The gentlemen composing the Democratic Standing Committee will meet at Martin's hotel, on Saturday, October 15, at 11 o'clock, A. M. It is hoped that every man on the committee will be present. JOHN B. BRATTON, Chairman. JACOB REIDERS, C. E. MAGLAUGHLIN, Secretaries.

ABOLITION TRIUMPH. The ejection of the Hon. Montgomery Blair, Postmaster General, from the Cabinet of President Lincoln, says the Lancaster Intelligencer, is another proof of the ease with which the President can be managed by the radical portion of his party. Although the Blair was original free soiler, and might justly be classed among the fathers of the Republican party, they have not yet attained the stature of full grown Abolitionists; and hence the voice of the late Postmaster General has occasionally been raised in Cabinet council against the destructive measures of the New England fanatics. What little of conservative principle he had left, has cost him his official head. His action in this matter furnishes additional proof that President Lincoln, so far from being a statesman, is merely a political trickster of the lowest order. He has bargained off a member of his Cabinet to reconcile the friends of Chase and secure the withdrawal of Fremont. It is a clear case of "bargain and sale," all the profit of which "honest old Abe" designs to appropriate to himself. He wants the support of Chase's Abolition friends in Ohio and of Fremont's in the Yankee States, and to secure them he blantly tells his Postmaster General, with whose official and personal conduct he professes to be satisfied, that "the time has come" for him to leave the Cabinet!

We have met leading Republicans who did not hesitate to say that it was necessary for Mr. Lincoln to change his Cabinet and his policy—that he must rid himself of the radical influence by which he has for the last year or two been governed, and modify the terms of his letter addressed "to whom it may concern" in such a way as not to make the abolition of slavery a condition precedent to the conclusion of peace. They said further that he had promised to make these changes after the election, and they expressed their confidence that he would keep his word. Now it is plain that Lincoln intends to cheat somebody, and it seems quite clear to us that he intends to cheat those Republicans of conservative tendencies whom he has persuaded to believe that he will discard his radical policy after the election. Mr. Blair was especially disliked by the Chase and Fremont Abolitionists, because there was still a slight tincture of conservatism in him. His forced resignation, on the very eve of the October elections, proves that the radicals have obtained a firmer hold than ever on Lincoln, and clearly foreshadows the entire ascendancy of Abolition influence in the administration of the government for the next four years, in the event of Mr. Lincoln's re-election.

Let the people take note of this and go to the polls with their eyes wide open. All who are in favor of continuing the war for the sole purpose of setting the Southern negro free and putting them on an equality with the white people of this country, can conscientiously vote for Lincoln, and of course the will vote for him. But those who hold the restoration of the Union above everything else, and who do not want the only door through which the South can return to be blocked up with the carcass of the "everlasting nigger," will assuredly not vote for him. The turning out of Mr. Blair means Abolitionism to the bitter end.

A vote was taken on the car from Carlisle to Harrisburg on Tuesday morning last, and stood for McClellan 27, and for Lincoln 21. This we know to be so.

VICTORY!

The election passed off quietly in this county. The average Democratic majority is some 800. Below we give the vote for Congress as near as we can ascertain it. GLOSSBRENER'S majority over Blair, Abolitionist, is about 575. The vote in the county is small.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. Includes Carlisle, North Middleton, South Middleton, Lower Dickinson, Frankford, Middletown, Newville District, Shippenburg District, Plainfield, Mechanicsburg, Upper Allen, Monroe, Lower Allen, Hampden, Silver Spring, East Pennsylvania, New Cumberland, Penn., Leesburg, Jacksonville, Newburg District, Upper Dickinson.

OUR CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT. As near as we can ascertain the vote for Congress in this District stands thus: Glossbrenner (Dem.), Daily (Abol.), Cumberland, 575; York, 230; Perry, 150.

THE STATE. The returns thus far are confused and very imperfect. We conclude, however, from all we can learn, that the Democrats have carried the State by some 15,000 majority. In November we will carry it by 75,000. Mark that, shoddyites and loyal thieves.

Our Grand Mass Meeting!

THE DEMOCRACY AROUSED! 3,000 People in Council.

LINCOLN TRIED AND CONVICTED! The Constitution Vindicated.

LIBERTY OF SPEECH MAINTAINED.

200 LADIES PRESENT.

THE SOLDIERS FOR MCCLELLAN.

Tremendous Excitement.

Never in the history of the Cumberland Valley was there such a gathering of the people as was witnessed in this town on Saturday last. It was the day of the Democratic Mass Meeting, and the yeomanry of the county poured into town by legions. The first delegations commenced to arrive at about 11 o'clock, and by 12 o'clock the town and suburbs were literally filled with people—patriotic men and women, who came here in response to the call of the County Committee. The crowd must have numbered at least 7,000, and really it was the largest meeting we ever witnessed, and just about ten times greater in numbers than the miserable Abolition gathering in this place on the Thursday previous.

The procession was formed at the north end of Hanover street, under the direction of Chief Marshal Captain DAVID H. GILMORE, of Newville, a gallant officer of the Army of the Potomac. Captain G. was assisted in his duties by some twenty Aids, all of whose names we could not ascertain. The York Brass Band, in a beautiful Band-wagon, headed the procession. It was with some difficulty the procession was put in moving order, owing to the fact that every street in town was filled to its utmost capacity. The difficulty was finally obviated as far as possible, and the vast cavalcade—reaching in length some five miles—commenced to move. Never was such a sight witnessed in this section of the State. Flags, banners containing mottoes, and evergreen wreaths in profusion, graced the procession. MCCLELLAN'S likeness could be seen in every delegation, and "old Abe" and his "pet lambs" (two young negroes) were "as large as life and twice as natural." We will not attempt to give a description of the hundreds of devices and sentiments that were carried. To do so would occupy two pages of our paper. Suffice it to say that the appearance presented was a grand army with banners. One wagon belonging to the South Middleton delegation, contained an immense bell which was tolled during the march. Over the bell was this motto, "We are now ready to respond to SEWARD'S BELL!"

At 1 o'clock the procession was halted and dismissed, and as many as could crowded the street in front of the Court House, where the stand for the speakers had been erected. Not one in ten, however, could get within hearing distance. Some two hundred ladies took position at the right and left of the stand, and a large delegation of soldiers also elbowed their way to within a short distance of it. Governor Seymour of New York, who had arrived in the early train of cars, was at the residence of our hospitable fellow-citizen, Gen. BOWMAN, where he remained until the hour for organizing the meeting. At about 1 1/2 o'clock the vast multitude was called to order by JOHN B. BRATTON, Chairman of the County Committee, who in behalf of the Committee, nominated the following gentlemen as officers of the meeting: President, Hon. JOHN STUART, South Middleton. Vice Presidents, Carlisle East Ward—Henry Saxton, Alex. F. Meek. Carlisle West Ward—Dr. J. J. Zitzer, Lewis F. Lins. Dickinson—John Huston, Joseph Galbraith. East Pennsylvania—Wm. Gardner, Ferdinand Roth. Frankford—Jacob Fry, Wm. G. Peffer. Hampden—Nathaniel Eokles, Samuel Megaw. Hopewell—Samuel Christlieb, Robert Elliott. Lower Allen—John G. Hoek, Israel Boyer.

Mechanicsburg—John Johnson, John Palmer. Middletown—Abraham Lambert, Wm. Wonderlich. Middletown—Thos. C. Scouler, George Moon. Monroe—Geo. W. French, Jerry Munroe. Newton—James M. Cullough, Christian Melinger. Newville—Hon. John A. Ahl, Thomas Stough. Newburg—D. B. Steviok, Wm. Ray. New Cumberland—John G. Miller, Joseph Freeman. North Middleton—Wm. F. Swiger, John S. Waggoner. Penn.—David P. Tritt, Wm. Harper. Silver Spring—James Anderson, John Bobb. South Middleton—Thomas Bradley, Nap. Moore. Southampton—Col. James Chestnut, Lovi Strohm. Shippenburg Bor.—Abm. Hostetter, Esq. Jacob Heck. Shippenburg Twp.—Thomas P. Blair, George Wandersman, Allen. Upper Allen—John B. Floyd, Adam Sechrist. West Pennsylvania—Samuel Graham, Patrick McNulty. Secretaries, Dr. G. W. Haldeman, Newville. David Smith, Carlisle. Jas. M. Masonheimer, Carlisle. Jno. O. Saxton, Silver Spring. Samuel N. Bunning, Mechanicsburg. Jacob Zug, South Middleton. David H. Voglesong, Middlesex. T. H. Oriswell, Shippenburg. G. B. Herron, Allentown.

Judge SEYMOUR briefly returned his thanks to the meeting for the honor conferred upon him, and at the conclusion of his remarks introduced his Excellency, Governor SEYMOUR. The cheers that then went up fairly made the earth tremble. The excitement and enthusiasm was intense, and it was some five minutes before quiet could be restored. Gov. SEYMOUR commenced his speech by returning his thanks for the flattering manner in which he had been received by the people before him, and then at once proceeded to discuss the great and momentous issues of the day. We will not pretend to give even an outline of his speech, for we cannot, in justice to him do so. It was a most lucid, powerful and convincing production—the fair, dispassionate appeal of one of the greatest statesmen of America. No syllable or word was harsh, even to a Republican, but yet in his remarks he stripped the leaders of the Republican party of the cloak under which they attempt to hide their deformity, and held them up to the gaze and detestation of the people. He spoke for an hour and a-half, and then retired as shout after shout retired.

JOHN A. MARSHALL, Esq., of Philadelphia, followed in a speech of great power. He is one of our best speakers, and on this occasion was particularly happy in his remarks. He said he had never before witnessed such a county meeting, and in concluding he urged our people, as they love their country and their God, never to tire until the nation was relieved of the traitors and Infidels who now administer the affairs of the country. CHANCEY F. BLACK, Esq., of York, made the concluding speech. It was short, but to the point, and was listened to with profound attention. The meeting then adjourned with three rousing cheers for MCCLELLAN, PENDLETON, and the whole County Ticket.

MEETING IN THE EVENING. At the ringing of the bell another meeting convened in the evening at the Court House, over which Col. PENROSE, of Carlisle, presided, assisted by Wm. B. BURLIN as Secretary. After being thus organized, Judge BLACK, of York, (formerly Chief Justice of the Supreme Court) was introduced, and spoke for an hour and a quarter. His speech was dignified and truthful, but yet his words were like red hot lava upon the heads of Republican conspirators. He proved to the satisfaction of every fair man, that the men now at the head of our national affairs had been plotting treason for nearly thirty years, and that civil war and a divided Union had been resolved upon long before they selected LINCOLN as the instrument to carry out their dark and devilish designs. We hope hereafter to be able to publish Judge BLACK'S speech, for it contains information that the people should not be deprived of.

After Judge BLACK had concluded, short and pithy speeches were made by General BOWMAN and Col. PENROSE, of Carlisle, Capt. GILMORE, of Newville, and JOHN A. MARSHALL, Esq., of Philadelphia. About one hundred ladies were present, and at a late hour the meeting adjourned with three hearty cheers for our candidates.

[From the Philadelphia Age.] A NOBLE SOLDIER'S LETTER. A gentleman, in this county, has handed us the following letter from his nephew for publication. The writer is a private in the regular army, and is stationed at Carlisle Barracks. By all means read his noble and patriotic sentiments. He is devoted heart and soul to his old commander, "Little Mac!"

CARLISLE BARRACKS, Pa., October 2. DEAR UNCLE: I received your welcome letter, dated September 27th, containing my assessment paper. You advise me to vote for General McClellan. Why, Uncle, did you think I would be simple enough to cast a vote for that old bungler that would waste the last cent and spill the last drop of blood in the country to elevate the nigger, and fill the pockets of shoddy contractors and the host of plunderers connected with the present Administration. No, God forbid; we have had enough of his mismanagement and incompetency, and do not want a repetition of it for four years longer, and I am afraid that will be sufficient to bring peace to our misguided country if such an unfortunate occurrence was to take place. But I think the people's eyes ought to be opened to the importance of casting him off as a failure, who has, by his ineptitude and total violation of his pledges, forfeited the confidence of his former supporters, without mentioning that of his opponent in a political point of view. No, Uncle, he shall never receive my vote, and I can inform you upon indisputable authority that, in taking the vote of the soldiers of the Union, he stands a very poor chance. If I say ten per cent. of votes, I am rather above than below the mark. There are in the room with me upwards of forty men, and I consider Lincoln strongly represented, in comparison with other places, when out of that number he has four supporters—the remainder are all unanimous in favor of the people's choice and their old commander, George B. McClellan. In the other Barrack rooms, Old Abe's supporters are upon a par with ours, so you see his support in this part is very meagre indeed.

We soldiers are highly amused at the glaring accounts in republican papers about the popularity of their chief amongst the military forces. Such statements may tend to impress on weak minds and parties who have never been amongst us, but let them who believe that he is the idol of the army once in terms with the soldiers, whether in barracks, hospitals, or in the field, and they will soon become aware of the following facts, viz:—That soldiers, although isolated from the seat of Government, are not so blind as to discern competency; that if the present Administration had acted in an upright and honest manner with the people placed by their country at their disposal, this unfortunate rebellion could have been ended long ago; that the only man who proved himself the idol of the army when the country could have been saved, was holding reinforcements from him in the hour of danger, and when, after severe fighting, and a masterly retreat, he saved his small army to be superseded, so that the people's blood might be more freely spilt, as it was by his successors at Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville; that the only man who was in danger, and Old Abe and his supporters trembled in their boots. Then the Young Napoleon, as they styled him; was called on, and routed the enemy from their door. We hold the same opinion of him now as we did then, and as not only the capitol, but the country at large is in imminent danger, we call on a man with heart and good will to extricate the Union ship from the chaos which she has been plunged in by the Abolitionist party, and that man who shall have our support is General George B. McClellan.

Democratic Presidential Tickets.

ELECTION TUESDAY, NOV. 8. Below we print 4 tickets for the election on the 8th of November. We print them in this way so that every Democratic man and woman in this county who receives our paper and who has a friend in the army, can cut out the column, enclose it in a letter at an early period, and send it to said friend or acquaintance. Let no one neglect this. The Black Republicans are determined to disfranchise the Democratic voters in the army if they can. They will try their best to prevent them obtaining tickets. This we know to be one of their devilish plans. They will not permit a Democratic soldier to vote if they can prevent it. See to it then, Democrats, that your noble sons, brothers and friends in the army are supplied with tickets. Send them this paper, or cut out the ticket column and send it in a letter.

ELECTORS. Robert L. Johnston, Richard Vaux, William Loughlin, Edward R. Helmbold, Edward P. Dunn, Thomas McCullough, Edward T. Hess, Philip S. Gerhart, George G. THE REIGN OF TAXES!

An Infallible Remedy for the Corruption Now Ruling on the Life-Blood of Labor! Under the present Abolition rule everything the poor man and his family eat, wear and use is taxed, and he who has the most to pay (if he can afford to buy any) is taxed, his coffee is taxed, his sugar is taxed; every article of his clothing is taxed, every household convenience and essential is taxed—down to the puny block of mutton; his medicines are taxed, and he who has the most to pay (if he can afford to buy any) is taxed, his coffee is taxed, his sugar is taxed; every article of his clothing is taxed, every household convenience and essential is taxed—down to the puny block of mutton; his medicines are taxed, and he who has the most to pay (if he can afford to buy any) is taxed, his coffee is taxed, his sugar is taxed; every article of his clothing is taxed, every household convenience and essential is taxed—down to the puny block of mutton; his medicines are taxed, and he who has the most to pay (if he can afford to buy any) is taxed, his coffee is taxed, his sugar is taxed; every article of his clothing is taxed, every household convenience and essential is taxed—down to the puny block of mutton; his medicines are taxed, and he who has the most to pay (if he can afford to buy any) is taxed, his coffee is taxed, his sugar is taxed;
