

General McClelland for McClelland

...A Noble Letter.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 4, 1864.

Dear Sir: Your communication, dated the 30th of September, inviting me to address the public in a speech on the state of the country and the impending Presidential election, is received.

I have to say that I have received numerous communications of like character, as well as many private letters, all of which I have read with interest.

As to my choice for President, I am for George B. McClelland; but, if I could not vote for him, I would vote for Abraham Lincoln.

It will thus be seen that if Lincoln carries the doubtful Republic, as well as the certain Republican States, he will still fall short of the needed 110 votes.

It is easily demonstrable that the same percentage of increase of this fall's vote in Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Ohio, as compared with last year, will give us all the States in November save those indicated above.

Although in all human probability General McClelland will be honestly elected President on the 8th of November next, still there is so large a margin of doubt, that Democrats cannot afford to consider the matter settled.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

THE NOVEMBER ELECTION.

The result of the elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana, as well as the recent town vote in Connecticut, settles the question that the political tide is running heavily against the administration.

All the gain is on the side of the Democratic party, and now that the current has fairly set in, it will move with accelerated force up to the time the November vote is taken.

The whole number of votes in the electoral college (not counting Tennessee or Louisiana) is two hundred and thirty one, of which one hundred and sixteen are required to give a clear majority and elect a President.

But the administration may put a forcible stop to elections in Missouri, Kentucky, Maryland and Delaware; so it becomes a question whether there are not some free States which will probably vote for the Democratic ticket.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

Another Draft Impending.

If Mr. Lincoln is re-elected, there will be another draft almost immediately. Governor Seymour drafted, in a speech delivered at Reading, Pa. last week, that the Administration had already intimated as much to him.

The army was filled up in 1862 by three years now, whose time will begin to expire next spring. The men who were drafted this year under 500,000 have but one year to serve.

With Mr. Lincoln in office, there is no possibility of peace. The South cannot make peace with him, for his demands are utterly inadmissible.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

The Rev. Samuel Phillips' New Book

THE VOICE OF BLOOD. In the Sphere of Nature and of the Spirit-World: Its Typical and Prophetic Utterances as the Mouthpiece of God and Man's Its Out-cries Against Sin and its Redeemer.

THE object of this work is to popularize the theory of the "typical and prophetic utterances of blood from a new standpoint; to present its historical and practical aspects in an attractive form, suited to the taste of the general reader.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

PUBLIC SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

On FRIDAY, October 14th, 1864. THE subscriber will offer at Public Sale on the premises, the following described Real Estate.

No. 1. Is a lot of ground situated in the Borough of Newville, bounded by Main street on the South, by Corporation street on the East, by an Alley on the North, being 30 feet front and 180 feet depth, having thereon erected a TWO-STORY Frame House, now occupied as a Dry Goods Store, run by South & Elliott. There is also a Ware House and Stable on the lot.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

Register's Notice

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested, that the following accounts have been filed in this Office, by the accountants therein named, in accordance with the provisions of the Orphan's Court of Cumberland County, for confirmation and allowance on Tuesday, October 25, A. D. 1864, viz:

1. First and final account of Henry Miller, administrator of the estate of John Miller, late of Millin township, dec'd.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Fancy Goods.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Fancy Goods. Dry Goods, Trimmings, Notions, &c. North-west corner of Hanover and Front Streets, Carlisle, Pa. would respectfully announce to the public that they have just returned from the Eastern cities with a large and well selected stock of goods, consisting in part of the following: Hosiery, Mitts, Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, Shirts, Drawers, Belts, Ladies' and Gents' Collars, Bindings, Cords, Buttons, Combs, Needles, Threads, Sewing Silks, Foot Skirts, Paper, Pen, Penholders, Cigars, &c., &c.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.

General McClelland for McClelland

...A Noble Letter.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 4, 1864.

Dear Sir: Your communication, dated the 30th of September, inviting me to address the public in a speech on the state of the country and the impending Presidential election, is received.

THE NOVEMBER ELECTION.

The result of the elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana, as well as the recent town vote in Connecticut, settles the question that the political tide is running heavily against the administration.

I have to say that I have received numerous communications of like character, as well as many private letters, all of which I have read with interest.

Another Draft Impending.

If Mr. Lincoln is re-elected, there will be another draft almost immediately. Governor Seymour drafted, in a speech delivered at Reading, Pa. last week, that the Administration had already intimated as much to him.

The object of this work is to popularize the theory of the "typical and prophetic utterances of blood from a new standpoint; to present its historical and practical aspects in an attractive form, suited to the taste of the general reader.

The Rev. Samuel Phillips' New Book

THE VOICE OF BLOOD. In the Sphere of Nature and of the Spirit-World: Its Typical and Prophetic Utterances as the Mouthpiece of God and Man's Its Out-cries Against Sin and its Redeemer.

THE object of this work is to popularize the theory of the "typical and prophetic utterances of blood from a new standpoint; to present its historical and practical aspects in an attractive form, suited to the taste of the general reader.

PUBLIC SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

On FRIDAY, October 14th, 1864. THE subscriber will offer at Public Sale on the premises, the following described Real Estate.

No. 1. Is a lot of ground situated in the Borough of Newville, bounded by Main street on the South, by Corporation street on the East, by an Alley on the North, being 30 feet front and 180 feet depth, having thereon erected a TWO-STORY

Register's Notice

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested, that the following accounts have been filed in this Office, by the accountants therein named, in accordance with the provisions of the Orphan's Court of Cumberland County, for confirmation and allowance on Tuesday, October 25, A. D. 1864, viz:

1. First and final account of Henry Miller, administrator of the estate of John Miller, late of Millin township, dec'd.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Fancy Goods.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Fancy Goods. Dry Goods, Trimmings, Notions, &c. North-west corner of Hanover and Front Streets, Carlisle, Pa. would respectfully announce to the public that they have just returned from the Eastern cities with a large and well selected stock of goods, consisting in part of the following: Hosiery, Mitts, Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, Shirts, Drawers, Belts, Ladies' and Gents' Collars, Bindings, Cords, Buttons, Combs, Needles, Threads, Sewing Silks, Foot Skirts, Paper, Pen, Penholders, Cigars, &c., &c.

It is my duty to say that I am in favor of a plain government, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none.