BATTLE NEAR FRANKLIN, TENN.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Thursday, Dec. 1. About noon on Wendnesday our main army reached Franklin, when Gen. Schoffeld ared to give the enemy battle. There was very little skirmishing, as Hood's object was to attack us before we had time to throw lefensive works.

About 4 o'clock the enemy commenced adnaicing on our lines, when the ball was open-d by our batteries shelling their advance, and soon after a regular cannonading opened long the whole line.

The Rebels, who had been protected by node, now emerged from cover, and opened with a fire volley of mukerry along the lines, and then charged. For a moment part of our line wavered, and fell back before the esperate charge of the enemy. Generals luher and Cox, however, rallied their men nd charged the enemy, who had crossed over

The Rebels were now fighting with the des eration of demons, charging our line furioussome leaping our works and fighting hard ow was the critical moment, and our Gen flank, doubling them in the centre, where artillery and murketry mowed them down

The tide was now turned. Our men, in ired with success, gave a wild huzza and opt back on the Robel line like an avale, hurling the enemy back in the wilddisorder and confusion.

Night was now setting in, yet we followed our advantage. What once threatened to rious victory. The courage of our officers d the desperate bravery of our men was

THE MARCH OF OUR FORCES.

They Desolate the Country as They Proceed.

[From the Richmond Dispatch, December 2.] The Georgia papers of the 27th contain some facts about the raid through that State. Seven hundred prisoners have been received ht Augusta who were captured while forag-Sherman's army.

The following extract from a letter in the Augusta Chronicle, from a writer who fled with the Legislature from Milledgeville, shows how the country is being devastated along the route of the invading army: Leaving our baggage, we took a hasty dinner, determined to keep the road to Madison until our pickets should notify us of the approach of the Yankees. About 4 o'clock a fecut came dashing down the road, at Gilpin speed, arving "Tathe woods to the woods!" speed, crying, "To the woods, to the woods!" and we wooded. Waiting several hours in d we wooded. Waiting several hours in Dec. 3, 842 CAUTION.—No bills except those contracted by myself or wife will be paid by me.

occasion, we determined to go out on the road and see what was going on. We gathered from their actions that they were the advance guard of the force from Madison, and were expecting to meet another force from Monticello at the fork near by. Late on Sun-of a burning house lighted up the horizon.—. Their main columns were passing from about 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon until about 9 o'clock at night. Going'to Credlet's place, we found his fine house in ashes, and his gin-gone. On his lot about one hundred horses lying dead; they looked like good stock, and were evidently killed to deprive the planters of them. A number of Mr. Credel's negroes

A large gin house full of cotton, corn-cribs lanta, escaped their brutal ravages. They ravaged the country below here to Oconce river. The roads were strewn with dobris of their progress. Doad horses, cows, sheep, hogs, chickens, corn, wheat, cotton, books, paper, broken vessels, coffee-mills, and fragments of nearly every species of property that adorned the beautiful farms of this country strew the wayside, as monuments of the meanness, rangeity, and hypocrisy of the bea-ple who hoast that they are not robbers, and do not interiere with private property. In Madison they burned the depot and one or two old warehouses, with the juil and market house. They gutted every store, and plun-dered more or less on every lot. They fired drug-store, and several other houses, and their officers, with a show of magnanimity, aided to put out the flames.

pened a New Sky-Light

PICTURE GALLERY In the new second story over the frame buildings In the new treend story over the frame buildings located a few doors south of the Post Ofice, and nearly opposite A. W. Bentz's store, South Hanover street. We have constructed this Gallery according to our taste, and flatter ourselves in saying we have far the best arranged light in town. To aged, infirm and delicate persons, we will say this Callery is much easier of access than any in this place, being located on the second story, and the story beneath being low, there is not such a tower of steps to accord.

- Having procured the assistance of an experienced operator, and purchased the best and latest improved apparatus, we are prepared to produce pictures equal to any other establishment, not excelled by New York or Philadelphia. Such as Extra Whole Size Photographs, Ambrotypes and Ferrotypes. We shall also introduce a new picture to this vi-nity in such unbounded demand in the cities,

GEM PHOTOGRAPH.

One dozen taken at one sitting at the low price of $1.50 per dozen. Pictures inserted in hockets, Ilings, and Pins, and copied or enlarged from old Deguerostypes, Ambrotypes, &c., &c., Also, for sale a fine lot of Picture Frames and Albums.—We hope, &y a strict attention to business and a desire to please, to receive our share of the public patronage. Do not forget the place, a few doors south of the Post Onice, South Hanever Street.
