THE SANITARY COMMISSION.

The National Intelligencer made all usion to the appeal of the Sanitary Commission for to me appearance of funds, and asked for a statement of the gross amount of salaries divided among the employees of that association. In partial reply, there was received a financial report of reply, there was received a manucial report of the western department of that originization, covering a report from September 1, 1861, to January 1, 1864. From this report it ap-pears that in that branch, the sum of $321, 105 42 had been expended. Of this $93,592 56 was applied to purchase of supplies, and 56 was applied to phromise of supplies, and the remainder expended in distribution of those supplies. Under the head of "expenses," $27,447 72 was absorbed under the head of "publication," &c., $5,283 88 was absorbed to the control of the control sorbed, and the amount of $ 24,069 15 was absorbed in the work of "general inspection," being an aggregate of $56,300 75 for these three items alone. In the "Directory" the sum of $13,071 53 was spent for "compensa-" of officers or agents and in the "Relief Department" the sum of $13, 224 50 was sim-a word, it cost $227, 572 86 to place $93,-592 56 worth of supplies at the disposition of the soldiers, notwithstanding the large amount of transportation which was performed by the government, and so not paid for by the commission. Is this statement to be considered s evidence tending to show the economy of nana gemen by this association? The Intelligencer makes the following significant statement : "We learn that the Eastern Department of the Commission, which has its headquarters in this city (Washington,) and in which the appropriations have been made on a greatly more extensive scale, has never published any financial report since the date of its orization down to the present time." The National Intelligencer is not a party paper, is edited with extraordinary ability and care, and commands the respect and confidence of all who read it, from the highest offivers of the government to the humblest in

With such evidences as these of the inefficiency, if not corruption, of the Sanitary Com-mission, it is simply folly for those who desire to aid the soldier to commit their gifts to its care. When it is recollected that this institution is presided over by a Reverned who denies the divinity of his Saviour, and that in general it is made up of such disinterested patriots as Forney and seedy individuals in quest of plunder, it is not to be wondered at that the suffering soldier complains in the bitterness of hii disappointment that he does not receive what is sent. The demorlization always attendant upon the large expenditures of war, naturally gives rise to every specie of corruption and swindling. These "Commissions" are not legally responsible to any authority and can therefore practice rascality with impunity. The way to stop such wrong action is to withhold support. Send your gifts directly to the soldiers.
