'GEII. TERRY'S OFFICIAL DESPATOII.

WASHINGTON. Jan. 17-10.40 A. M.

Brinadier General J. O. Rawlins :"

GENERAL: I have the honor to report that Fort Fisher was carried by assault this afterncon and evening, by General Ames' divis-ion and the second brigade of the first division of the 29th Army Corps, aided by a bat-talion of marinos and seamon from the mayy

sion of the work was not obtained until 10

The behavior of officers and men was most admirable. All the works south of Fort Fisher are now occupied by our troops. We have not less than 1,200 prisoners, in-lease viuding Gen. Whiting and Oil. Lumb, the Mr. commandant of the post.

I regret to say that our loss is severe, es pecially in officers. I am not yet able to form any estimate of the number of casual ties. I will surprise out ALFRED H. TERRY.

A DINNER TO GENERAL SHERMAN.

It is not generally known that General Sherman was entertained at dinner by the leading citizens of Savannah, among thom Mr. Green. It is stated that the table was set in a princely mannor. Not having plate enough to accomodate all the officers and guests, some of the more wealthy citizens provided additional silver picces a fact which indicates the popularity of General Shorman. R. E.
