

And now we've got the offices

And contractors, it is true, It is a glorious time for us, But rather hard for you.

For we've got enough of yankees Scattered through the West 611 the Federal due me. In future I intend meeping short decounts. There is your luttle bill, if you would like to look st it. F will only around would like to buy this, thut, hud the other; but you know exactly how much money you have lett, and if you go on buying more things your, purse will soon be empty. You do not see this when you take oredit. You this evening. It is but a small a ffair. Thirty dollars is no small suin 'to us just now,' thought Mrs. Thompson, as site i hought filly pressed her way toward home. It seems strange that all these payments n ust be met just now, while we are struggling 'to recover from the heavy expenses of the win-iter. I cannot understand it.' by begging or borrowing, to earpe the mon-ey to robbir, and then struggle on again, with her husband with two bills in his hand, and a countenance expressive of auxiety and con-

 gc on in this way
 A little discomposed by har intervie, v with the teacher, Mrs. Fhompson stepped in to a light oring. From the second stepped in the teacher, Mrs. From the second stepped in the teacher, Mrs. From the second stepped in the convenient for Mr. Thompson to settle it this evening? seked the civil shop keeper.
 HINTS. FOR HARD. FINES. — Credit never permits a man to know the teal value of monody, nor to have fulls control over this affairs. It presents all his expenses in the aggregate, and, not in detail. Every one has more or liss of the inser's love of money—of the acount is the produced the desired for teaction.

 'Is it 'the' usnal 'time to's settling?' was 'Well; not exactly, bu't money is very tight, 'well; not exactly, bu't money is very tight, due me. In future I istend deseging short due me. In future I istend deseging short would like to buy this, that, and the other; bit you know exactly how much money you that Jesus of Nazareth shall suffer death by -tuo cross. di In the seventeenth year of the reign of the Emperor Tiberias, and on the 25th day of the nor to disturb and torture their feet with overtight shoes, nor to put bonnets on their lected and the knowledge of what must be bracks that run up into turrets of silk and ar-tificial flowers, and leaving the ears at the mercy of the bitter winds, nor to make up forty five yards of steel wire, into carges and fasten themselves within them, nor to carry-an extra half yard of dress-stuff bravely after then on the server at the steel wire into a the server at the server at the server at the server at the server then on the server at the server at the server at the server then on the server at the ser interesting in the highest degree to every Christian. It is word for word as follows a Sentence pronounced by Pontius Pilate, intendant of the province of Lower Galilee. them on the pavement, through thick and thin. Yet these women have the advantage of us, for are we we not forced by the exigen-cies of wastern when we come with our long

And feather well their nest. 'In four years more we'll make enough "To satisfy our pride, Till And then we'll say to one and all, Just let the Union slide. Misrellaneous. tin. GOING DOWN HILL BY MRS. S. P. DOUGHTY.

'That looks had,' exclaimed farmer White time when everything around his little place was trim and tidy.' farmer. House, outbuildings, and grounds all show the want of the master's care. A am afraid Thompson is in the downward path.' He always appeared to be a steady, in-dustrious man,' rejoined the second speaker. 'I have a pair of books on my feet at this moment, of his make, and they have done me good service.'

I have generally employed him for mywors, or which a same in near i thrays make it a rule never to patronise these who appear to be running behind-hand. ' There is generally some risk in helping those who do not try to help themselves.'

do not try to help themselves. Very true, and as my wife desired me to tee about a pair of shoes for her this morn-ing. I will follow your example and call upon Smith. He is no great favorite of mine, however an idle, quarielsome follow.

the world, answered the farmer, t and I am willing to give him a lift. But I have an erwhing to give him a life. But I show an er-raid at the butcher's. Step in with me for a moment, I will not detain you. At the butcher's, they met, the neighbor who had been the subject of, their previous

'Look; Mary,' 'he said, as she entered, here are two unexpected calls for money; one from the doctor and the other, from the That looks bad,' exclaimed farmer White' lone from the doctor and the other, from the with an expressive shake of the head, as he defler in leather from whom 1 purchased my, last stock. Hiney are both very urgent for immediate payment; although they have although they have although the remark was addressed.
Neighbor Thompson appears to be running olimits'. But misfortunes none singly, down hill pretty fast remark was little place.

trouble seems to pour in upon him, set to fait of Just So, replied the wife and the neigh-bors think we are going down hill, and every door, and the appearance of a lad who pre-peared: To one northin ergy of and with best - wTher batcher's account, as I live? exlaimed the astonished shoemaker. . . What is to be done, Mary ? So much money to be on the downward path.'

We must do our best and trust in Providence,' was the consolatary remark of: his wife, as a second knock at the door aroused the Year Round. the fear that another claimant was about to appear. But the benevolent counterance of Unele A REWARKADA PROPHEOR. -- Not long ago Joshua, a rare, but ever welcome visitor, pro-sented itself. Seating himself in the comfortable ohair which Mary hastened to hand him; he said, in his somewhat eccentric, but friendly man-in his somewhat eccentric, but friendly man-month of March, in the most holy city of Je-rusalem, during the pontificate of Annas and Camphast Pilate, intendant of the province of Lower Gallee, sitting in julgment in the presidential sent of the proton solences. sus of Nuziroth to death on h cross between two robbers, as the numerous and notorious testimonics of the people prove:

2. Ile has excited the people to sedition 2." He is an energy to the laws. 5. Ile calls thimself felsely the King of by to rether, and then struggle on again, with ey to be ker of onre eating at their heart, to the call. The section of the sec 6. He went into the temple, followed by a multitude carrying palms in their hands. Orders the first centurian, Quirillus Cornelius, to bring him to the place of execution. Forbids all persons, rich or poor; to prevent The witnesses who have signed the execuion ngainst Jesus ard and a state permanent ingeme. There will always be people who cannot help their misfortunes. people who cannot kelp their misfor times... But, as a rule, these...unfortunates are far less trouble to cociety, than those in a better pointion, who bring their misfortunes upon themsolves by deliberate reckless and extrav-ingenes. You may help a poor honest strug gling man to some purpose... But the atmost ryou can do for an unthrift is thrown away. You give him monoy you have carried by hard labor...he spends it in pleasure whom are the following words : A similar plate has been sent to each tu be ?... It was discovered in the year: 1280, in the city of Aquila; in the kingdom of N in the city of Aquini in the kingdom of A a ples, by a setred made for the discovery of the Roman Antiquities, and remained there inful it was found by the commissaries of art in the Freith any of Italy in Up to the Thave generally employed thim for imy-solf and family, was the reply, 'and must for imy-confess that he is a good workman, 'but, ney-confess that he is a good workman,'but, ney-confess that he is a dood workman,'but, ney-work hest always given entification. If I could only heve as much employment as use al, and the useal oredit allowed me, I could "in the interfere the is in dependent for the sense of being in the interfere the is in dependent for the sense of being in the interfere the interfere the interfere and independent for the interfere interfere in independent for the in dependent for the interfere interfere in helping these who nothe downward path.'' the French and for the French army.' The French plan might we kept by them, might was an acknowledgement of the saorifices which they made for the French army. The French translation was made literally by members of the commission of arts. Denon had a fac slave, a prisoner, forever dragging his chains behind him through all the grandeur of the false world through which he moves -All simile of the plate cograved, which was bought by Lord Howard, on the sale of his cabinet for 2, 890 francs. There seem to be no historical doubts as to the authenticity of this. The reasons of the sentence correspond exactly with those of the Gospel.—Translated from the Kolnishe Zeitung. 1.1.2

vonversation: He sertanly pressued.*
''Well; good folks, I understand that the two manual servers and the server state of the server state sta WHERE THE COLD COMES FROM. Observa-tions of the cold terms for several years, show garments upon any impurities of the path way, to shut our eyes and clench our teeth, and rush blindly over them; whereas these Kanaka women, at the sight of even a spot of water, lift their light garments gingerly, and pass over, clean and ensalled from its contact? 'Can this be barbarous?

WEIGHT OF PEOPLE .- The average feturn show that a citizen of the world, on the first day of appearance in public, weighs abou six pounds and a half; a boy baby a little more, a girl baby a little less. Some very modest babies hardly turn the scale with two pounds, and a half, while other, pretention pounds, and a half, while other, pretentions youngsators boast of ten and eleven pounds.— When Shylock asked for his "pound of flesh," he taked for an equivalent to a little less thanions sixth of a baby. How the tiny ones grow, during, childhood, we need not trace here; but it may be interesting to know that girls and boys of twelve, years of age are nearly equal in weight; after which limit males are heavier than females of the same are of the same of twenty wears a sum

This sentence is engraved on a plate of brass, in the Hobrew language, and its sides. "A similar index is a plate of a plate in following words : "A similar index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate index is a plate of a plate of a plate index is a plate of a plate of a plate in the index is a plate of a plate index is a plate of a plate of a plate index is a plate of a erage weight is about a hundred and fifty-two pounds; but the women slowly fatten until fifty, when their average is a hundred and twenty-nine pounds. Men and women together, their weight at full growth avera-indi inty, wohn held average is a minited in the second and sould in the secon and conditions, nones, oregy, unders, data ors, wives, maidens, boys, girls and babies, all included—the, average, weight is almost exactly one hundred English rounds avoir-dupois for each human being; a quantity asy to remember at any rate.

DIDN'T WANT'A SUBSTITUTE. Mr. Pilkin-son, a small farmer in Pennsylvania, was sonie time ago drafted for the service of his country. His wife though she possesses but from three to eight weeks, herther the up-proach of danger nor the calls of hunger can drive them from the aest. Before incubation is completed, the female, however plump at the beginning, is generally emacisted to a skyleton. "Among some tribes the male and Temate sit alternately, the more equally to direct the labor... among others the male proa small stock of general information, is one of the best conjugal partners, and she was much troubled at the thought of parting with her husband. As she was engaged in strub bing off her door-step, as rough looking stram-ger came up and thus addressed her. 'I hear, madam, that your husband has been draffed.' 'Yes, sir, he has,' asked Mrs. Pilkinson though the shows, there's few youldn't hat-ter be spared from their families.'. Well, madam, I have some to offer myself ation, and by increasing the next encestor to accelerate its progress. At times, howev-er, the eggs require a heat, that seems hurt-ful to infant life; on these occasions they are left to cool; and the hen, after a longer or shorter space of time, according to the wea-ther, again resumes her coputation with for-mer nersers and a leasure. as a substitute for him. A what? asked Mrs. Pilkinson, with some excitement.

'I am willing to take his place,' said the stranger. a new There's beau which had fit wretch. I'll teach you to insult a distressed woman that way, you vagsbond l' oried Mrs. Pilkinson, as she discharged the dirty soap ude in the face of the discomfited and astonished substitute, who took to this heals just in time to escape having his head broken by the ous of studying the "ancients. Bucket.

may be pretty sure of earthly suicessi-have nothing to do but to enjoy, their moon and honey for two.

mer perseverance and cleasure.

pearly, and are going to pot. The timber trade is pining, and holders shall, moreover, be disqualified from holding, any office of honor, profit, or trust, under the Government of the United States. have to rest upon their cars to stave off the There is no spirit in the rum trade, and Approved Feb. 25, 1865.

holders of vinegar look sour; champagne, JAMES S. GREEN OF MISSOURI .- Most intelligent men recollect this singularly gifted Rhubarb and Senna are quiet drugs, but man, and like the writer, have wondered bere is a consumption of brimstone for matwhat had become of bim for the last four or ches, many having lately been made. Holders of indigo look blue, but those deep five years. " Mack," of the Cincinnati Comches, many having lately been made.

Holders of indigo look blue, but those deep read are not green 'onough to think that a symptom of the trade dying: Starch is stiffening and paper is stationary. In the mean market things are flowery, but the inlices signal market things are flowery, but the inlices signal the grain at which the bakers are also crusty.
The grees have got along pretty gingerly, but some, having tasted a piece of the times. 'Markey'' Biuwner, A. laughable mistake is shown in the following mixing of the 'was the on'. There 'seemed to be a bright future opening for film, but it we are one concerning a preacher, the other about the freaks of a mad. dog - which 'was ing down Penneylynia Avenue, I pass- walking down Penneylynia occurred in a hurried "make-up" in a print-ed a wretched looking man, stupidly drunk, this face horribly disfigured, as if he had just "Rev. James Thompson, Rector of St. An-emerged from a street fight; both his eyes blackened and swollen, his clothing covered of running and confusion. After a long race the 23d travelling the whole distance of 850 he was finally shot by a policeman." miles in fourteen days an average of 60 57 PATIENCE OF BIRDS.---We have all heard lectures... He found the ice smooth and bean-PATIENCE OF BIRDS.----We have all heard letters. The ball the best motion and beat und maryalled at the "patience of Job," but what can exceed the patience of Job, "but hatching? During a period which continues from three to eight weeks, neither the ap-proach of danger nor the calls of hunger can ment. It is one of the most extraordinary feats on record.

A Conscientious GENTIENAN.—An Irish-man being recently on trial for some offence, pleaded "not guilty;" and, the jury being in the box, the State's Solicitor proceeded to vall Mr. Furkisson as a witness." With the utmost innocence, Patrick turned his face to the court, and said : "Do I understand yer honor that Mr. Furkisson is to be witness fornenst me agin?" The Judge said, dryly, it seemed so: "Well, thin, yer honor, I plade guilty, sure, an' yer liqué plase, not because I am guilty, for I'm as inspent as yer honor's souching babe at the brist, but jist on the account of saving Misther Fur-kisson's soul?" A CONSCIENTIOUS GENTLEMAN .--- An Irish divide the labor; among others the male pro-yides food for its mate, while hatching, or al-leviates her toils by his malody from a noigh-boring bush; some join together in the oper-ation, and by increasing the heat endeavor 17 Some poet says the wind kisses the waves. That, we suppose is the celebrated "kiss for a blow," of which we hear so much.

The Illinois Legislature has purchased the burial ground of the late Stephen A. Douglas for $25,000. With four metalic qualifications a man

IT It is a bad diabit to carry your pins of your religion in your mouth.

L. A. Young professor at one of the cola leges married a lady tweaty years his senior. This was said, by a witty friend, to be a proof of his ambition, as he appeared desi-