CAPTURE OF JEFF. DAVIS!

He Attempts to Escape in Feminine Disguise.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, May 14.—Major General Dix, New York:—The following details of the capture of Jefferson Davis, while attempting to make his escape in his wife's clothes, have been received from Major General Wilson. E. M. STANTON.

MACON, Ga., 9.30 A. M., May 13th.—Hon. E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.—Lt. Col. Harden, commanding 1st Wisconsin, has just arrived from Irwinsville. He struck Davis' trail at Dublin, Laurens county, on the evening of the 7th, and followed him closely night and day through the pine wilderness of Alligator Creek and Green Swamp, via Cumberlandville to Irwinsville. At Cumberlandville Col. Harden met Col. Pritchard with 150 picked men and horses of the 4th Michigan. Harden followed the trail directly south, while Pritchard, having fresher horses, pushed down the Comulgee towards Hopewell, and thence by House Creek to Irwinville, arriving there at midnight of the 9th. Jeff. Davis had not arrived. From citizens Pritchard learned that his party were encamped two miles of the town. He made his dispositions and surrounded the camp before day. Harden had camped at 8, P. M., within two miles, as he afterwards learned from Davis.

The trail being to indistinct to follow, he pushed on at 3. A. M., and had gone but little more than one mile, when his advance were fired upon by men of the Fourth Michigan. A fight ensued, both parties exhibiting the greatest determination. Fifteen minutes elapsed before the mistake was discovered. The firing in this skirmish was the first warning Davis received. The captors report that he hastily put on one of his wife's dresses, and started for the woods, closely followed by our men, who at first thought him a woman, but seeing his boots while running, suspected his sex at once. The race was a short one, and the rebel President was soon brought to bay. He brandished a bowie knife of elegant pattern, and showed signs of battle, but yielded promptly to the persuasion of the Colt's revolvers, without compelling the men to fire. He expressed great indignity at the energy with which he was pursued, saying that he had believed our Government more magnanimous than to hunt down women and children. Mrs. Davis remarked to Col. Harden after the excitement was over, that the men had better not provoke the President, or he might hurt some of them.

Reagen behaves himself with becoming dignity and resignation. The party were evidently making for the coast.

J. H. WILSON, Brevet Major General.

FORNEY'S BUISINESS.—Of course the Washington Chronicle and Philadelphia Press can see nothing wrong about the institution of a Secret Military Star Chamber. Forney is a mere lick-spittle of Stanton and other Government officials. Whatever enormities they may commit will be defended by him. Referring to the objections raised against the unlawful tribunals set up by Stanton, the very strongest denunciation of which comes from decent Republican papers, the Chronicle says:

"No patriotic man will pretend to deny that that which will promote the ends of justice, and accrue the punishment of the assassins, is the great duty confided to this tribunal; and if it is accomplished, the mere matter of attaining it is exceedingly subordinate."

The Philadelphia Ledger, also a strong Republican paper, has the following short and pointed commentary upon the above extract. It says:

"This argument begins with an unfairness, for it impeaches the patriotism of those who care more for the laws and their inviolability than they do for individuals. The great duty of every public tribunal is to act according to law, and there can be no duty properly and legally assigned to "this tribunal," which the laws expressly confide in another. The "mere manner" of attaining the punishment of the guilty is not a "subordinate matter." The manner is the form through which a conviction must take place, and the forms of law are the safeguards which a wise administration of justice has properly thrown around the citizen for his protection.

THE OATH.—General Halleck is signalizing his rule at Richmond, Va., by a strict enforcement of the oath. Among other regulations, parties are not permitted to marry until they take the oath of allegiance to support the Constitution. A few days ago the Whig was compelled to remove the motto of the State arms from his paper, "Sic semper tyrannis," because the murderer of the President made use of these words immediately on committing the deed. This is petty and childish, to say nothing of the want of authority to annul the motto of the State, because it is stolen by an assassin. Why not prohibit people from riding horses, because Booth escaped from Washington on horseback? It is questionable whether any prohibition of marriage will improve the public morals. If the parties take the oath of allegiance, does it follow that the children born of the marriage will be loyal citizens? Why not swear the dogs to keep them from barking at Union people?—Doylestown Dem.

A CLERICAL OFFICE-HOLDER.—"Rev. Noble Frame, a Methodist preacher of Doylestown, Pa., has received an appointment in the Philadelphia Custom House, at a salary of $1200 a year."—Patriot & Union.

This man Frame was one of the most blatant of the Abolition pulpit demagogues, during the late campaign. By his political harangues he has driven many more people away from the church than he has ever brought into it. Recognizing but one God, the negro, he served him and his friends faithfully, receiving for his services $130 from the Union League of Doylestown. He is no soldier, however, having never murdered any rebels, or anything else, excepting the King's English" and the rules of grammar. Well done, good and faithful servant, his be thy reward—$1200 a year in the Custom House!—Pottsville Standard.

USE AND ABUSE OF ICE.—The drinking of iced liquids in considerable quantity is highly injurious, and in some cases their use has been attended with inflammation of the stomach and bowels, and even sudden death—not always accounted for by the time being in a heat. Ice, or iced water, retards digestion, chills the body, and often produces most dangerous congestions. On the other hand, ice or ice water applied to inflammations, croup, &c., has been productive of the best effects; it diminishes the quantity of blood in the vessels, and carries off the excess of heat.—A piece of ice laid on the wrist will, in many cases, stop bleeding of the nose. If milk or butter is cooled with ice, it must be used at once, otherwise it will lose its freshness.

☞ The testimony taken at the trial of the assassination conspirators is already voluminous, and bids fair to exceed that of any modern criminal court. The reporters of the press have been admitted, and a large part of the testimony will be allowed to be published.

A COLLEGE FOR SALE.—The Sheriff of Snyder county advertises for sale the property of the "Susquehanna Female College," situated in Selinsgrove.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

The sale of the first series of $300,000,000 of the 7-30 Loan was completed on the 31st of March, 1865. The sale of the second series of Three Hundred Millions, payable three years from the 15th day of June, 1865, was begun on the 1st of April. In the short space of thirty days, over One Hundred Millions of this series have been sold—leaving this day less than Two Hundred Millions to be disposed of. The interest is payable semi-annually in currency on the 15th of December and 15th of June by Coupons attached to each note, which are readily cashed anywhere. It amounts to

ONE CENT PER DAY ON A	$30 NOTE.
TWO CENTS " " "	$100 "
TEN " " " "	$500 "
20 " " " "	$1000 "
$1 " " " "	$5000 "

More and More Desirable.

The Rebellion is suppressed, and the Government has already adopted measures to reduce expenditures as rapidly as possible to a peace footing, thus withdrawing from market as borrower and purchaser.

This is the ONLY LOAN IN MARKET now offered by the Government, and constitutes the GREAT POPULAR LOAN OF THE PEOPLE.

The Seven-Thirty Notes are convertible on their maturity, at the option of the holder, into U. S. 5-20 Six per cent. GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

Which are always worth a premium.

FREE FROM TAXATION.

The 7-30 Notes cannot be taxed by Towns, Cities, Counties or States, and the interest is not taxed unless on a surplus of the owner's income exceeding six hundred dollars a year. This fact increases their value from one to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate levied on other property.

Subscribe Quickly.

Less than $200,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within two months, when the rates will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans. It now seems probable that no considerable amount beyond the present series will be offered to the public.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the Loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par.—Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

JAY COOKE,
SUBSCRIPTION AGENT, Philadelphia.

Subscriptions will be received by the INCREASE OF RATS.—The Farmer's Gazette (English) asserts and proves by figures that one pair of rats will have a progeny and descendants no less that to1,059 in three years. Now, unless this immense family can be kept down, they would consume more food than would sustain 65,000 human beings.

THE rebellion is now over, and we are again restored to our peaceful avocations, we cannot better mark this era than by making preparations to return to the accustomed FALL EXHIBITION of our Society, and that we may have the most extensive, the best and most interesting that we have ever had, let us begin to prepare for it now. The season is most propitous and promising of fruitful results—and our appetites for the enjoyment of such an exhibition as we will have—have been sharpened by the disappointments of the last three years.
