that a grave senator occupied the attention of the Senate on the state of the intion.—
His solemnity of manner, his simplicity of style, his extreme views on the subject of state rights, all proved the sincerity of the speaker, and recalled to memory the figure, voice, and sentiments of the dead Calhoun. The voice seemed more like the emanation of a spirit than the uttered convictions of the man who was destined to be the leader of the man who was destined to be the leader of the great rebellion. A sort of awe spread over the Senate chamber, and even Wade, and Sumner, and Chandler listened with an at-

played the chief role as the advocate of Jenerson Davis.

Governor Medary sleeps in an honored grave, but there are yet three living witnesses to the truthfulness of this parrative. One is a state prisoner who lies in chains at Fortress Monroe; another is his jailer, who declared the prisoners views to be just, and who sought to place the man he now holds in irons, in the Presidential chair; the third and last is the venerable James Buchanan. This is but a stray scrap of history, but it is not unworthy of being presented.

Voice FROM THE GRAVE.

[From the New York World.] C. A. Dana, late assistant Secretary of War.

The Chicago Post, which has been in the habit of publishing the World's corespondence as its own, is to be merged next Mondence as its own as day in a new Republican newspaper, which will be edited by C. A. Banz, formerly of the Taibune, and more recently Secretary Stan-ton's most subservient tool in the arbitrary arrests and the illegal imprisonments of the War Department. It was Mr. Dana who did the dirty work in the Colonel North business last year, when even a military commission failed to find one atom of evidence against failed to find one atom of evidence against the agent of the State of New York, arrosrested and held in prison on a trumped up charge of forging soldiers' votes.

The secrets of that prison house will, one of these days, be revealed, and put to shame their authors. It will be revealed how these shameless tools of the War Department sought to terrify a young prisoner voto periory, so to terrify a young prisoner into perjury, so as to manufacture evidence against Gov. Seymour; how they used solitary confinement, denial of the commonest necessaries of life, and wholesale lies, as in old days the rack and the thumberrew were used, to gook up a case. The public already knows how they failed. This C. A. Dana, late Assistant Secretary of War, has been the willing tool of the War Department also in its violations of the freedom of the press, and it whis he who assisted Mr. Stanton in defaming General Sherman and in cooking the War Department news despatches so that they should seem to make General Sherman appear guil-reason to regret that their profession should be disgraced by the return to it of a man who has done his best to despoil it of its rights, its privileges, and its liberties, and who has disgraced human nature by showing himself rat manufacture and the statement of the statement win has disgraced numan nature by showing himself not merely capable of tyranny in an office of power, but capable also of the mean-er task of becoming and remaining the sub-servient and consenting tool of tyranny.

Negro Suffrage Meeting in Bos-

Bosron, May 29.-At a meeting of the Emancipation League, this afternoon, strong speeches were made by Judge Kelly, of Philadelphia, Senator Wilson, ex Governor Boutwell and Wendall Phillips. Gan, Butler was announced to speak, but was not present. The right to allow negroes to vote, was forcibly advocated, and the following were among the resolutions adopted :

Resolved, That since the denial of right to the black man, was the cause of the disruption of the Union, their disfranchisement and full equality before the law must be the corner stone of its reconstruction. Here we have the matter in a nut shell .-

The next step of the Republican party is to give the negro the right to vote, to sit on juries and to hold office. Judge Kelly is the leader of the Republican party in Philadelobiia,

Gen. Sherman's testimony and official report, submitted in evidence before the Committee on the Conduct of the War, is a complete vindication of his conduct in regard to his truce with General Johnston, and bears heavily against Secretary Stanton and Gen. Halleck, whose hasty condemnation of the great soldier was uncalled for and malig-
