RICHMOND Va., Aug. 23 .- Disclosures conderning operations in the Pay Department of this command, came partially to the surface to day, the full developments of which will how that the criminal epidemic is on its travels. The questionable transactions are alledged to have taken place in the seven-thirties, and involve the good name and fame of Lient. Col. Amos Binney, a paymaster of long standing in the service, and for some time past the chief paymaster of this department. It appears that some time since Col. Binney was entrusted with several millions of dollars to be dised in the discharge of obli-gations in his department, some three milgattons in his department, sometimes in lines of which he had converted into seven-thirties and deposited in a Norfolk, and per-haps one or two other banks. The Norfolk institution, with a very light capital, has recently taken one million dollars of these se-burities, which fact, it is stated, has created considerable astonishment in that section of the State. In one of my despatches of some adays since, it will be remembered that I stated that some of the bankers and brokers of Richmond, and also some at Lyachhurg, were charging the soldiers who had been spaid off in these soyen thirties a discount on them of affour and eight dollars per hundred dollars. Hereupon a strong complaint was made to the Paymaster General of the United States Army, at Washington, who directed an immediate investigation, which resulted in the instant transfer of Colonel Binney to the national capitol for examination. Col. Binney seems to have determined to pay off the troops of this command in these securities, and has managed the business in such a way as to grenrich the Bank and pocket for himself bewith the bank and fifty thousand dollars. It is to be hoped that the distinguished officer involved will be able to explain away the bad restures of these charges .- N. Y. Herald.

TO ADVERTISERS. The circulation of the Philadelphia Age, which is steadily and rapidly growing, makes it at least as valuable a medium for advertising as any other ommercial and business newspaper in Pailadel phia; and the fact that it reaches a large class o phin; and the fact that it reaches a large class of conservative readers, scattered over a vast extent of country, who do not take any other Philadelphia paper, commends it, to an extraordinary degree, as a means of communicating with the public not possessed by any other journal published in this city.

THE AGE is now established on a sure and permanent foundation. The Publishers could easily fill their columns with the unsought and most libfill their columns with the unsought and most liberal commennations of the press throughout the country; but they prefer that it should stand altogether upon claims to public confidence well-known and established. It will be, as heretofore, the supporter of true National, Corservative, Democratic, Union principles, opposed alike to radicalism and functions in every form, and devoted to the maintenance of Good Government, Law and Order. The revival of all business relations of the country, consequent upor the suppression of the rebellion and the restoration of peace, will enable the Publishers to make a number of improvement in the various departments of this journal, and they, therefore, respectfully solicit the support of all who wish to secure one of the best Commercial, Literary, Butiness and Family Newspapers in the
