ELECTION, TUESDAY, OCT. 10th, 1865.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS. The following Democratic Meetings will be held throughout the county: Sporting Hill, Thursday evening, Oct. 5th. Shiremanstown, Friday, " 6th. Shippensburg, Saturday, " 7th. Shepherdsburg, " 8th. Carlisle, " 9th.

A full attendance is expected. Jus. C. Thompson, Clk. man.

Just received by Wm. Blair & Son, a fine assortment Coal Oil Lamps; sold wholesale and retail.

PETER F. EGE, Esq., offers for sale two desirable residences in the Borough of Carlisle. Also, one first-rate hotel property at Boiling Springs. For particulars inquire of the editor of the Volunteer.

WILL BE SOLD.—We are requested to say by the administrators of Wm. M. BERTER, dec'd., that the very valuable farm property, just east of Carlisle, will positively be sold at the time advertised, (to-wit, Thursday, Oct. 5, at 2 o'clock, P. M.) all tanyers to the contrary notwithstanding.

ASHLAND CEMETERY.—The Ashland Cemetery will be dedicated with appropriate religious services, by the ministers of Carlisle, next Sabbath, (Oct 8th,) at 3 o'clock, P. M. Seats will be furnished for the audience. The Choir of Carlisle will furnish suitable music, and an appropriate address will be delivered. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

A. B. EWING, Chairman of Com. of Arrangements. TUSCARORA FEMALE SEMINARY.—Attention is directed to the advertisement of this flourishing Female Seminary. Prof. Kolbe, the principal, is a ripe scholar, and admirably qualified for the position. Persons having daughters to educate cannot do better than to send them to the Tuscarora Female Seminary.

THE FAIR.—We urge our readers to prepare their articles for the Fair. The premium list is larger than ever before, and the receipts must be increased, or they may not meet the expenses. We should all take pride in making the Fair as grand an affair as possible; and the way to do this is for every man, woman and child to come themselves and bring a dog, an cat or calf with them. We want here a big thing of it, and we must have the help of our country friends to do this. Get your articles in readiness, then, friends, and be on the ground early and remain all the time. Our citizens will do all in their power to render your stay pleasant, for without you the Fair will be a failure.—The Committee on Premiums made a great mistake in not offering a good premium on the best looking baby for this town, which would have brought all the mothers to town, each one of whom thinks her own baby the prettiest, and the mothers would have brought the fathers, and thus we would have had a crowd, and our baby would have got the premium. No doubt about that.

SILVER SPRING AWAKE!—The Democrats of old Silver Spring held a large and enthusiastic meeting at the public house of A. Klink, in Kingston, on Monday evening last. Mr. CHARL. KAER, Esq. presided. The meeting was addressed by Col. W. M. Purnose, M. C. Herman, F. E. Beltzhoover, Wm. B. Butler, and Geo. C. Graham, Esquires, of Carlisle. The meeting adjourned with three cheers for the whole Democratic ticket.

Some of the more shameless of the negro-equality journals are amusing their readers by publishing extracts from the proceedings of the last Senate previous to its organization. It is a shallow attempt to mislead, and will recoil upon the unprincipled shoddyites engaged in it.

The disbandment of the negro troops in the South is looked upon as a final abandonment of the idea of a negro army, in a white man's country.

"IF NEGRO-SUFFRAGE IS NOT AN ISSUE IN PENNSYLVANIA, WE SHOULD LIKE TO KNOW WHAT IS."

So says HORACE GREELY, editor of the New York Tribune. There is one thing about GREELY that we admire, and that is his sincerity. Fanatic as he is, he is no dissembler. Sunk or swim, he advocates boldly the measures that he is favorable to. As leader of the Abolition party he cracks his whip over the heads of the more timid of his followers, and bids them fall into line, or if they are too cowardly to do so, he commands them to get out of the way altogether. He wants no half-way men, and will have none. He is captain of the Abolition disunion host, and demands implicit obedience.

A few days ago the Tribune contained an editorial (from Mr. Greely's own pen) on the subject of Pennsylvania politics. It is much disgusted with the position occupied by the Republicans of this State, and does not hesitate to denounce their timidity in attempting to shirk the negro-suffrage issue. "That little sniggering, sniffling, bought-up traitor, JOHN CESSNA, Chairman of the negro-equality State Committee, is reminded by GREELY that he must toe the mark, and come out openly for negro-suffrage, and make this the question before the people. GREELY says—'If negro-suffrage is not an issue in Pennsylvania, we should like to know what it is.'" So says he. If negro-suffrage and negro-equality is not the issue, what else are our opponents contending for? For the last four years they have labored for the overthrow of slavery.—To accomplish this object they bent all their energies. They succeeded—they abolished slavery, and also abolished a million of white men, who sleep in bloody graves. The abolition of slavery broke up the Republican party—it was their whole stock in trade.—Why then do they still publish papers? Why then do they attempt to keep up an organization against the people if they have nothing to contend for? GREELY tells them that they have something to work for, and he tells them also what that something is—it is negro-suffrage! Many of the Jacobins of this State, little hunching Cessnas among the number, are attempting to shirk the question.—They would keep the people in the dark, pull wool over their eyes, and gain a victory for their negro-suffrage candidates by deception and fraud. The people, however, understand these leaders in the Jacobin ranks, and they, with GREELY, repeat the question, "if negro-suffrage is not an issue in Pennsylvania, we should like to know what it is?"

Negro-suffrage, then, is the issue. HARRIS and CAMPBELL, are pledged to carry out, if elected, this negro-equality idea. Davis and Linton are opposed to it. Col. Davis, in his letter accepting the nomination for Auditor General, speaks out like an honest man, as he is, when he says—"I am opposed to granting the elective franchise to negroes; this is the white man's government, and white men must govern it." Col. LINTON endorses these words of his colleague, and thus the issue is made up. JOHN CESSNA, the little traitor, may attempt to hide the issue, but his low cunning will not avail him, and he had better take GREELY'S advice and avow the object he, and the rotten, infamous, stealing party he represents have in view and at heart.

Previous to Mr. LINCOLN'S first election, there were not one hundred men in all Pennsylvania who could be got to avow themselves Abolitionists. How was it immediately after the election? Every mother's son of them changed front, espoused the New England Abolition cause, and openly avowed themselves Abolitionists. They found that LINCOLN himself was an Abolitionist, and that he had the spolia to dispense. Their conduct now is a similar deception. About one-half of them are attempting to keep quiet on the subject of negro-suffrage, and would, if they could, hide this issue; but should they elect their State ticket, they will then come out openly and claim a victory for the negro-equality principle. As we have remarked, however, the people understand these desperate demagogues, and on NEXT TUESDAY they will speak out in a voice of thunder against the men and the objects of the Jacobin-shoddy-copper-thieves party. Mark it!

THE HERALD AGAINST THE PRESIDENT. The Carlisle Herald has at last come out boldly against President JOHNSON and his plan for the immediate restoration of the Union. It sides with that old mischief-maker and bad man, THAD. STEVENS, and promises to publish the treasonable speech which he delivered recently at Lancaster against the President. The Herald has no room for President JOHNSON'S speech to the Southern delegates, in which he explained his policy fully, and gave his views at considerable length. But it has room for STEVENS' reply to the President. This shows the bigotry and unfairness of that paper, and is evidence of its deep hostility to the President.

A few months ago the Herald was of opinion that opposition to the President was treason to the Government. It denounced as "traitors" those who found fault with President LINCOLN'S unconstitutional and revolutionary acts. We therefore feel justified in branding the Herald a traitor; it is opposing President JOHNSON, and, according to its own teaching, is guilty of treason. "Down with the traitors and up with the flag," say we.

THE WEATHER.—The nights and mornings are getting decidedly cool, and give us a little idea of October weather. Autumn has already begun to breathe upon us, and the trees of the grove and the forest will soon be putting on their russet and fading into the "aure and yellow leaves," and we shall soon realize the time and scenes so beautifully described by the poet:

"The melancholy days are come, The saddest of the year; Of winding winds and naked woods, And meadows brown and bare.

"Heaped in the hollows of the grove, The withered leaf lies dead; They rustle to the eddying gull, And to the rabbits' tread.

"The robin and the wren have flown, And from the shrub the jay, And from the wood-top calls the crow, Through all the gloomy day."

Let every voter clearly understand that the election of the Republican candidates on the platform adopted by the Convention, will be an unqualified condemnation of President JOHNSON and his policy for restoring the Union.

Why don't the Carlisle Herald and others of the negro-suffrage class of shoddy organs publish President JOHNSON'S speech to the Southern delegates? Say, why don't they?

"LOYAL THIEVES." The Era of Robbery and Crime.

A New York contemporary of Republican proclivities declares that it never knew a time when there was such lawlessness everywhere, and adds: "Society seems to be resolving itself into its original element, and every man is becoming a law unto himself. Murders, riots, outbreaks, drunkenness, rapes, garrottings, robberies, thefts, rorydism, etc., are of daily occurrence. A spirit of hate and vengeance seems to pervade the land. The teachings of the last four years have educated a generation of cut-throats. Pulpits and pincers are synonymous terms, and there is not even an intermediate stage between diapers and despatches. It is estimated that during the last year there were 250,000 robberies, and breaches of trust, over one thousand million dollars! This is frightful, and as disgraceful as frightful."

One thousand million of dollars! A snug sum of money, this—quite a large pile. But large as is the amount mentioned, the New York editor might have added several hundred thousand millions more, and been nearer the mark of truth. What a confession is this? By their own showing, the Jacobinists have been stolen from the Government, in four years, one thousand millions of dollars! And it is to make up these defalcations that the people are taxed and stamped to death. Let honest men think of these things as they pay over to the Government tax collector their hard earnings. Let them ponder over these startling facts when the U. S. Assessor interrogates them as to the number of chickens and eggs, and lambs and pigs they sold during the year. Aye, let the people think, and they will be convinced that nearly if not quite half the amount they are compelled to pay in the way of U. S. taxes, is to make good the defalcations of a set of scoundrels who live in high-priced houses, every brick of which is moistened with widows' tears and stained with white men's blood!

And these are the men whose wide throats have been made sore from their incessant yelping about "loyalty" and "copperheads," for the last four years. It was Senator HALE, (Republican,) who first named them the "loyal thieves," and it was a most suitable appellation, for a greater set of robbers and villains never went unwhipped. They were intensely loyal, however, and their depredations upon the Treasury were winked at if not directly encouraged by those high in power. Let the people, we repeat, think of these things, and then vote.

A. HESTAND GLATZ. In our last mentioned, briefly, that the Democratic Senatorial Conference representing this District had presented Gen. A. H. GLATZ of York, as the Democratic nominee for State Senator. Col. CRESSNA, after 308 ballots, yielded in favor of York county, and the nomination of Gen. GLATZ was made unanimous.

We have all along contended that Cumberland county was entitled to the candidate, and we had hoped that our just claims would not be overlooked by the conferees. But, after all, principles are everything and men nothing in the present struggle, and we rejoice that the long contest for Senator has been brought to an end, and that harmony and good feeling prevails.

Gen. GLATZ is a gentleman of high character, and will make a very intelligent and useful Senator. He has already served the people of York five years in the Legislature—three in the Senate, and two in the House, and during all this time he has retained the full confidence and respect of his constituents. As a Democrat, no man can show a better record than Gen. GLATZ; and his character for integrity is unimpeached and unimpeachable. He is, indeed, admirably qualified for the important position of Senator, and it will give us pleasure to assist to give him seven or eight hundred majority in this county. Fall in line, Democrats, and give a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether for the ticket, the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket.

The Herald has a way peculiar to itself of making a point—but no one can see the point but its editor. In our paper of two weeks since we stated what every one knows to be true, viz—that the LINCOLN administration was the most proscriptive we have ever had in this country, and that no man, civilian or military, could expect maintenance or employment "who did not first swear allegiance to the Black-Abolitionist." The Herald replies to these allegations, and in doing so proves them true. It reminds us that General McCLELLAN and FITZ JOHN PORTER were Democrats, and in the "employment of the Government." So they were, but were they not ousted because they refused to bow down to the black god put up before them? The removal of these distinguished officers was little else than treason, and nearly every officer in the army will say so. They were removed because of their politics, and for nothing else. The Herald says also that such Democrats as BUTLER, SLOCUM, LOGAN and others, were in the army—"in Government employ." Oh, yes, and their poor devils, turned their political coats to be retained in the high military positions that they disgraced. Just what we said in our former article. But, the Herald makes another striking point. It reminds us that Colonel DAVIS and LINTON, our State candidates, were permitted by Mr. LINCOLN to remain in the army at big salaries! Well, well—that says magnanimously, certainly.—Col. DAVIS came out of the war, after fighting at the front for nearly four years, minus his good right hand. Col. LINTON returned home, with two ribs less than when he left. But both got "big salaries," and Mr. LINCOLN permitted these two "copperheads" to remain in the army, and enjoy themselves fighting rebels! Was there ever such an argument made in behalf of an administration? Why, it is the most ridiculous nonsense we ever heard. What we said concerning the mean proscription of the administration, was true, and the Herald admits everything we said, and we have nothing more to add.

Why don't the Carlisle Herald and others of the negro-suffrage class of shoddy organs publish President JOHNSON'S speech to the Southern delegates? Say, why don't they?

Vote the whole Democratic ticket.

A HERMAPHRODITE PARTY. The Milwaukee (Wisconsin) Sentinel, a Republican sheet, observes:

The Union party should be honest and manly enough to do up every question of a political significance before the country, but should take one side or the other of these questions, so that its position may be thoroughly understood. If it favors a tariff or negro-suffrage, let it say so without equivocation. If it opposes a tariff and negro-suffrage, let it say so without equivocation. Let it be a bird or a beast, and not hover between the two, like the contemptible but in the burial under the weight of public condemnation, it is a hermaprodite party and hermaprodite politicians.

When the organs of the Abolitionized Republican party talk in that manner, what assurance can the honest working masses have that there is any fixed policy or any settled principles within the self-styled "Union party"? In one State that party has a platform before the people which is totally ignored in the State just adjoining. In another State it has a platform differing from both the others. And so the party of "grand moral ideas" goes—pandering everywhere, to local prejudices, but never definitely fixing upon any sure line of policy or cast of principles. Will the people trust a lot of politicians who have assumed to themselves the name of Union, but are united in nothing, except to be in a fight for the spoils of office? Trust them not. Men who are not "honest and manly enough" to come before the people and declare their sentiments and the true issues of the times, should be suspected, abandoned and ostracized by the people everywhere.

History of the First Regiment Pennsylvania Cavalry, from its organization, August, 1861, to September, 1864; with a list of names of all officers and enlisted men who have ever belonged to the regiment. Philadelphia: King & Baird.

We have read the above neat little work of 216 pages with much interest. The sufficiency of this record is vouchered by the fact that it comes from the pen of our talented young friend and fellow-citizen, Wm. P. LLOYD, Esq., of Lower Allen township, who was adjutant of the regiment. It was recruited under the provisions of the law authorizing the Governor to recruit fifteen regiments, in various parts of the State, and assembled in July, 1861, at Camp Curtin. The defeat at Bull Run caused the incomplete regiment to be sent to Washington, under Captain Hastings, U. S. A., as Colonel. Lieutenant Geo. D. Bayard succeeded to the colonelcy in September, when the organization was completed, and Captain Higgins chosen Lieutenant Colonel. The horses were excellent; the material of the regiment choice. It wintered at Pierpont in 1861, having had a skirmish at Drainsville in November. Winter quarters were broken up in March, 1862, and the regiment advanced to Manassas, having a skirmish on the way. It then participated in McDowell's advance, in Pope's advance and retreat, in Cedar Mountain and Bull Run; camped near Washington; accompanied the advance in October, 1862, shared in Fredericksburg, when General Bayard was killed—and went into winter quarters at Bell Plain Landing, at the close of December.

The regiment left its winter quarters in April, 1863, and did picket duty for some time. It fought at Beverly Ford, Brandy Station; from Aldie's to Ashby's Gap, June 20, 21 and 22, and then took part in the fight at Gettysburg; returned to Virginia and fought at Shepherdstown; crossed the Shenandoah and fought at Culpeper; at Auburn and New Hope Church; then it was at Richmond Heights, Cold Harbor, Barker's Mills, Trevilian Station, White House, Malvern Hill, Lee's Mills and Ramoth's Station, Aug. 25, 1864. It shared in 28 battles and 30 skirmishes, and travelled 4339 miles in three years. It had three colonels, five lieutenant colonels and eight majors. Eleven of its officers were killed and thirteen wounded while the men suffered heavily in killed and wounded, and by deaths from disease.

The history of the regiment gives a connected and clear account of its doings up to the hour when it was mustered out, followed by a record of the battles and skirmishes in which it was engaged; a record of its marches and routs, and a catalogue of the companies, staff and line officers, and of the privates, discharges, deaths and promotions which took place. It will be seen that the history is precisely what such an one should be—concise, definite and clear. After such a reference, it is almost needless to say that this history will remain another green leaf in the chapter which our State troops have won for themselves, and be cherished with regard through coming years. We feel a new pride in our gallant State when we read a narrative of connected and unbroken gallantry through such a period and amid such trials. The compiler has done his work well, and the volume deserves to be placed in all the libraries of the State.

By a little notice of six or eight lines in the last Herald, we are informed that Dr. STEWART, of Shippensburg, has been nominated for the Senate by the Republican Conference. How is this? Both York and Cumberland had instructed for Col. EZE. Why was he discarded? He did not decline, we learn. What man then took it upon themselves to cast him aside, to make room for another "home guard"? Really, this is using the Colonel rather shabbily, and we sympathize with him. It is another evidence, however, that the Republicans care very little for soldiers except to use them as tools for unprincipled politicians.

RENEGADE DEMOCRATS.—It is a remarkable fact that the most virulent tyrants of the present day—Stanton, Holt and Butler—are renegade Democrats. Thus has it always been. Benedict Arnold, after his treason, led the British troops and torques against his native town in Connecticut, and burned the houses over the women and children.

There are some few papers in the country which are edited and published entirely by black men—veritable niggers.—Herald.

Democrats, Remember!

Democrats remember that you have, as yet, but a few hours, in which to prepare for the contest. But a few hours to accomplish that which is of more importance to you and your country, than we fear, many of you feel. Are you up and doing? The enemy is leaving nothing undone that will insure your defeat or a reduction of your majority at the polls, and it is only your own untiring devotion to the good cause in which you are engaged, that will thwart their schemes. AROUSE! BE WAKEFUL! BE WATCHFUL! BE VIGILANT! Let no sense of security cause you to neglect your duty! Let no prospect of success induce you to relax your labors. The greater our victory this fall, the easier the battles will hereafter be won. Success this fall insures success next fall; and the Presidential campaign of 1868. Who amongst us but would labor to accomplish this? We are in the right. We have corruption, taxation, usurpation, "negro equality," and the hundreds of infamous ideas advocated by Abolitionists to put down. We have tax-gatherers, revenue assessors, contractors, riggers, and plunderers, office seekers & holders, and shoddy with all its power and might to contend with; but we have truth and right, justice and law upon our side, and it requires of us BUT TO DO OUR DUTY, and it will be well.

Soldiers! Stand by your Race.

Soldiers who you have borne the brunt of battle and carried the musket, REMEMBER that the Black Republican, Abolition, Negro Voting, and Negro Equality party ENDEAVORED to rob the old ARMY OF THE POTOMAC of their dearly earned laurels, of the CAPTURE OF RICHMOND, and tried to give it to the NEGROES.

Soldiers! do not forget that the party headed by Hartranft in this State openly proclaimed that NEGROES WERE BETTER SOLDIERS THAN WHITE MEN WERE.

IF YOU WOULD PRESERVE YOURSELVES, your WIVES AND CHILDREN from the DISGRACE of being reduced to the LEVEL of the NEGRO, vote the whole Democratic ticket.

Tax-payers, Look Here!

The expenses of the State Government for the year 1860, were $269,897.71; for 1861, in the heat of the war, they were $413,894.03; for 1864, they were $600,021.61; an increase of nearly $200,000 over that of 1862. In 1863, the expenses of the Legislature were $183,550.62; last year they were $291,815.71! Hurrah for the economical Abolitionists! Who cares for expenses?

Against Andrew Johnson!

Every man who votes the Abolition Negro Suffrage Ticket at the coming election, votes against ANDREW JOHNSON, votes against endorsing the President's restoration policy. That ticket is placed on a platform which covertly disapproves of that policy. Remember this, soldiers and citizens!

Arouse, Freemen!

To the polls on TUESDAY NEXT, and vote for the candidates who are opposed to the wrongs we have enumerated. If you do not, the Republican party will succeed, and then the evils complained of will be continued and myriads more of the same sort are in store for you!

Rich—Very!

John Cessna, Chairman of the Abolition State Committee, is now flooding the country with a pamphlet purporting to contain the record of the Democratic party from 1800 to 1865. John himself helped to make three years and a half of that record, and whether good or bad, he is responsible for a good share of it. Isn't it rich, now? Reminds one of "the dog that returneth his vomit again!"

Facts for White Voters.

No Republican newspaper in this State, so far as we have seen, has declared against negro-suffrage. Most of the journals of that party, have expressed themselves in favor of it.

The present and the future show demands of the Republican party that it shall answer: 1st. ARE YOU FOR OR AGAINST PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S POLICY OF RECONSTRUCTION? 2d. ARE YOU FOR OR AGAINST NEGRO FRANCHISE AND NEGRO EQUALITY? DEMOCRATS OF PENNSYLVANIA!

What Beecher Says!

BEECHER'S Independent says:—"Two men of color sat in the State Republican Convention at Worcester last week," and hopes that New York will hurry up and "get ahead of Massachusetts by putting Frederick Douglass on her State ticket, on his way to a seat of Congress that he shall yet occupy." So goes Abolitionism. First the freedom only of the slave was desired; then the right of suffrage; now the right to a seat in Congress; and next the occupancy of the White House will be demanded. At first the Abolitionists were few and weak, and their demands were moderate; but, since the Republican party has joined with them, their demands have become more exorbitant. The Republicans granted them what they first asked, and, if this party shall be continued in power, they will eventually be compelled to "go the whole hog." Shall we have a mosaic Congress and a black President?

Negro-Equality.

From the Boston Herald. A NEGRO STUDENT in HARVARD.—The first colored student admitted to Harvard College is Mr. Richard Greener, some twenty-two years of age, who yesterday passed a rigid and satisfactory examination. He is a graduate of Phillips' Academy, Andover.

From the New York Tribune. A NEGRO JUROR.—At the opening of the September term of the Brooklyn City Court yesterday, Mr. Robert Johnson, a colored man, was called and empaneled as a juror.—He served on one case and appeared to act quite intelligently. The fact of the presence of a colored man in a jury box, however, was the cause of considerable remark.

Negroes in schools, upon the same benches with whites; negro jurors, negro voters, negro Congressmen, negro Governors, negro Cabinet officers, negro Presidents; in short, absolute negro-equality with the white, is the aim of the radical Republican party.

The Soldiers Wide Awake.

We are glad to see that in our country as in other portions of the country the soldiers have opened their eyes and are interesting themselves with the Democracy in favor of the WHITE RACE.

The soldiers can't sto much the idea of making the negro their social and political equal. The Democratic party also see as still, as it ever was, THE UNION PARTY. Republicans being opposed to letting the South come back.

Defrauding Union Soldiers!

Col. W. W. H. Davis and Col. John P. Linton, whose names head the Democratic ticket, were both severely wounded several times, whilst in the service. Col. Davis lost his right hand at the siege of Charleston. The Abolitionists are now trying, by lying and deception, to defraud these brave soldiers of the honors so justly due them. Veterans rally around these maimed and gallant standard-bearers, and help them repel the attacks of their enemies and the enemies of the Union!

Disunion!

The Abolitionists are now striving to prevent the return of the seceded States to the Union. Thad. Stevens says they must be kept out, or the "Republican" party will be ruined! Thus, soldiers, your four years' toil and sacrifice, the blood and the lives of your comrades, and the treasure of the country, given to bring back the South, are, by these Abolitionists, rendered vain. Veterans! Heroes! DOWN WITH ABOLITION AND UP WITH THE UNION!

Get Out the Vote!

That we can if we will, carry this country by eight or nine hundred majority, we feel confident. Our danger lies in our lethargy—we must go to work and bring to the polls the careless and the doubting. Our standard-bearers are good men, and we should give them such a support as will be worthy of their merits. We appeal to our friends in each township to have every Democrat at the polls. This is no time for us to be asleep, when our foes through the land are crying for negro suffrage and negro equality.

Union Voters!

Let every man, who desires to vote a Union ticket, remember that the negro party is a disunion party—in favor of keeping the Southern States out of the Union and holding them as so much conquered territory! Democrats are in favor of the immediate and perfect union of ALL THE STATES, as they always have been!

To the People of Pennsylvania.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL C. M. ROOSES, PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27, 1864. The nation, emerging from internal convulsions, is about to enter upon a new career.

Shall we be launched upon the highway to increased power and grandeur, or upon a sea of distracting questions afflicting our social and political relations, and to which we trust our bark to the guidance of Partisanical schismatics? The Democratic party has arrayed itself in united phalanx under the banner of the Constitution, and marches side by side with the President in his restoration policy. The Republican party is distracted in sentiment and divided in council. Its platform, its press, its candidates and its central authority fail to meet the questions of the day, and fear to face the realities of the immediate future.

They seek to cover the future beneath the lifeless eulogy of the past. Oblivious of their oppression, and shoddy, they prate of its services, their sacrifices, and their loyal and patriotic inactivity supplies the place of many a declaration of opinion. The past is valuable only as a guide to the present and future.

Practical, earnest, honest men, want opinions for the present and future. The present and the future show demands of the Republican party that it shall answer: 1st. ARE YOU FOR OR AGAINST PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S POLICY OF RECONSTRUCTION? 2d. ARE YOU FOR OR AGAINST NEGRO FRANCHISE AND NEGRO EQUALITY? DEMOCRATS OF PENNSYLVANIA!

Observe the Fact.

Although it has been charged over and over again by the Democratic journals of this State that Messrs. Hartranft and Campbell are standing on a negro suffrage platform and that the Republicans are running on a Black Issue, not one of the Shoddy organs has ever denied the fact. By their silence admit the truth of the charge! They dare deny it! White men—soldiers! are you prepared to cast your ballots for negro suffrage and equality?

"The Negro Bear the Palm!"

White soldiers! you are asked to know hand that slaps you in the face? You expected to vote the ticket of a party at its greatest man, Wendell Phillips, said in an open speech, that "AMID THE GALLANTRY, THE PATIENCE, THE HEROISM OF THE WAR, THE NEGRO BORE THE PALM!" Will you do it?

A Stumbling-block!

Every voter who casts his ballot for Hartranft and Campbell, votes to sustain Thad. Stevens' attack upon President JOHNSON and to put a stumbling block in the way of the President in his efforts to restore Southern States to the Union.

What do they Want?

The black cops are a queer people. I used to pretend to fight to bring the Southern States into the Union; now they are trying to get up a fight to keep them out of the Union.

Why does not Gen. HARRIS make his commission, while stamping the Star himself? He has no right to draw money from the Government at the rate of $8 per annum, when he is merely working his own interests. If he does not consent to be the head of "useless generals," just let it be very singular. Let him follow the example of Gen. SLOCUM, who upon receipt of intelligence of his nomination by the Democracy of New York, resigned his commission immediately.

Everybody is a "Copperhead" these days, who does not favor negro suffrage. Thus, a Springfield, Illinois, letter to Cincinnati Gazette, says "a little black Copperhead, with Gen. McClellan as President, met to ratify President JOHNSON'S policy." Then JOHNSON is a copperhead!

SIGNIFICANT.—The Minnesota Democratic State Convention, which met at St. Paul on the 10th ult., unanimously adopted a resolution endorsing President JOHNSON'S black cop act toward a resolution, in the State Convention of that State, endorsing him.

Of the two Senators and eight members of the Legislature nominated by the Republican party of Philadelphia, not one has ever shouldered a musket or drawn sword in defense of his country. And this is the action of the party that profess the great friendship for the soldier! How monstrous is unnecessary.
