Men who for four years and more talked flippantly about giving the 'last man and last dollar" to Mr. LINCOLN, for war purposes, are all at once quite poor, and their Government tax don't amount to a drop in the ocean. What are we to do? Let any one who is well acquainted with our capitalists of Carlisle, glance over the returns of income made by many of them, and he will be convinced that our conclusion is correct. We know a number of men in this place who | went largely for the Democratic candidate have boasted of their big speculations in rail-road, eil, coal and other stocks, but it is evident they failed to mention these speculations to the U.S. Assessor. How is this? We desire to call the attention of the peoalcole to this subject. We are well aware that for the last four years or more a widespread immorality has been sweeping over our land. Infidels and libertines have been appointed to positions of trust and responsibility; bribery, corruption, fraud and perju-
