JOHN JACOD,

Proclaim the Immutable Principles of Democra Throughout the Land." THE WEEKLY Dotton and Wool for Ladies, Gents, Misses and PATRIOT AND UNION For the Campaign of 1865.

The political campaign just opening in Pennsylvania is destined to be one of great importance, and to have an powerful influence upon the future of the country at large. In a great measure it will determine the gubernatorial contest of 1866, and have an influence upon the presidential claefilm two years thereafter. But, more important, if it will probably determine the choice of the next U. S. Senator from this State, and thus affect the legislation of Congress and the restoration of peace to all the land. It is therefore, of vital importance that every exertion should be made, by devery member of our party to weure the victory. Not only should every local organization be, put to work, but every honorable means should be adopted to stir up the hyathetic and lukeway, and to make new votes by conversion. It can all be through the immutable and golden principles of Democracy that the country can be redepted from the thraldom of functicism, degredation and taxation. Outside the Democracy there are no principles. The rule of action of the opposition is ever changing—one thing to day—something else to—morrow. It is held, tragether merely by expedients—the latest and most outrageous of all being the modern, six-monthy political trick of negro suffrage. To defeat this, and all other schemes of the Abolition shouldy hordes who live on?—of plunder and tynannize, let every Democrat arouse and gird on the rusty armor of his fathers in Democracy—of Washington, of Jofferson, of Jackson; and march to battle and to his fathers in Democracy.—of Washington, of Jof-ferson, of Jackson; and march to battle and to
