DEATH OF LORD PALMERSTON .- England has suffered a heavy loss in the death of Hanry John Temple, Lord Palmerston, which took place on the 10th ult. at his seat at Hut-field, in Hertfordshire. He was Prime Minater at the time of his death, and was the first statesman of England. Ho was eighty-one years of age. He had held a seat in Par-liament since 1807; boing an Irish Peer, he could not sit in the House of Lords except by election. He held office all his life. He was an able man, and was at all times the champion of England, right or wrong. It is thought that Earl Russell will succeed him as Prime Ministor.
