

Godey's Lady's Book

FOR 1866.

THE Fashion Magazine of the World. LITERATURE, FINE ARTS and FASHIONS. The most magnificent Steel Engravings—Double Fashion Plates. Wood engravings on every subject that can interest ladies. Crochet-knitting, Netting, Embroidery, Articles for the Toilet, for the Parlor, the Boudoir, and the Drawing Room. Everything in fact, to make a complete Lady's Book. THE LADIES' FAVORITE FOR 36 YEARS.

No Magazine has been able to compete with it. None attempt it. GODEY'S RECEIPTS for every department of a household. These alone are worth the price of the book. Model Cakes (no other Magazine gives them) with diagrams. Darning Lessons for the Young. Another specialty with Godey.

Original Music worth $3 a year. Other Magazines publish old worn-out music; but the very best that can be had is given in Godey's. Starting for Ladies. Another peculiarity with Godey.

Fashions from Messrs. A. T. Stewart & Co., the millionaires of New York, appear in Godey, the only Magazine that has them. Ladies' Bonnets. We give more of them in a year than any other Magazine. In fact, the Lady's Book enables every lady to be her own bonnet maker.

Marion Harland. Authoress of "Aloha," "Hidden Path," "Mist Side," "Nemesis," and "Miriam," writes for Godey each month, and for our other magazine. We have also retained all our old and favorite contributors.

THE WEEKLY PATRIOT AND UNION

For the Campaign of 1865.

The political campaign just opening in Pennsylvania is destined to be one of great importance, and to have a powerful influence upon the future of the country at large. In a great measure it will determine the gubernatorial contest of 1866, and also the presidential election of 1868. It is, therefore, of the highest importance that the people of this State should be fully and correctly informed of the merits of the candidates, and of the principles upon which they stand. The Weekly Patriot and Union is published for this purpose, and is the only paper in the State which is devoted to the dissemination of correct and reliable information.

It is published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays, and is sold at the rate of one cent per copy. It is the only paper in the State which is published for the people, and not for the profit of a few individuals. It is the only paper in the State which is published for the people, and not for the profit of a few individuals.
